The Green Bay Packers, Inc., is a community-owned non-profit corporation. A total of 4,626 1/2 shares are owned by 1,812 shareholders—none of whom receives any dividend on the initial investment. The Corporation is governed by 45 directors and a 7-man executive committee.

ROBERT E. HARLAN

President and Chief Executive Officer

Robert E. "Bob" Harlan, a member of the management team for the past 18 years, made Packer history earlier this year in becoming the ninth president and chief executive officer in the team's 70-year existence.

Harlan, who had been executive vice-president of administration, was elected to the presidency June 5, 1989 and thus became the first CEO in the organization's annals to come up through the ranks. All previous presidents of the National Football League's only publicly-owned franchise had come from the business and professional areas of the community as members of the club's board of directors.

The 52-year-old Iowa native succeeded Judge Robert J. Parins, who retired as president the same day and was elected chairman of the board.

Harlan, who has been involved with every area of the club's operations over the course of his Green Bay career, joined the Packer organization as assistant general manager on June 1, 1971, after serving as director of public relations for the St. Louis baseball Cardinals.

He later was named corporate general manager in 1975, corporate assistant to the president in 1981 and executive vice president of administration on February 16, 1988.

In the latter role, he had been responsible for team travel, negotiating radio and pre-season television contracts, the public relations department and marketing, playing and practice fields, buildings and grounds, front office personnel, ticket office operations, purchasing, the leasing of Lambeau Field's private boxes, insurance, game day entertainment and the scheduling of pre-season games.

Prior to 1985, he also negotiated all player contracts for 14 years.

In taking office, Harlan quickly set forth his agenda. "I want to move this franchise ahead in every area," he said. "We've got to be successful from top to bottom to succeed. And we are going to succeed."

Addressing what he termed the two key "bottom lines," he said, "obviously, one is winning football games and the other is keeping the organization financially solvent and strong so it can always remain in Green Bay and compete with the other 27 clubs in this league."

Becoming president of the Green Bay Packers, he also revealed, has exceeded his fondest dreams.

"In 1960, when I had just graduated from Marquette University and was working for the university as sports information director, just getting started in public relations," he told members of the media following his election, "I attended a Packer game in Milwaukee County Stadium. I made a comment to my wife that I hope I can grow in the public relations field and become competent enough that someday I can become public relations director for the Green Bay Packers."

"When the opportunity came along 11 years later to join this fine organization, I jumped at it. For the past 18 years, to be associated with the NFL and the Packers, I have been highly honored ... that honor has reached a new and incredible level."

The Packers' new CEO, who earned a B.S. degree in journalism from Marquette in 1958, had a brief tour of duty in the U.S. Army before spending a year as a general reporter for United Press-International in Milwaukee. He subsequently became sports information director at Marquette in 1959, serving six years in that capacity. He joined the St. Louis baseball Cardinals in 1965, serving as director of community relations and the speakers' bureau for two years and as director of public relations for 3½ years before coming to the Packers.

Bay community as a member of the executive board of the Packer 65 Roses Sports Club, which was created to generate awareness of Cystic Fibrosis and to raise money for research, and a member of the board of directors of the First Wisconsin Bank of Green Bay and the Green Bay Area Chamber of Commerce.

Bob and his wife, Madeline, have three sons — Kevin, 29, who is the play-by-play "voice" of both the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs and the new Minnesota Timberwolves of the NBA; Bryan, 27, who is director of public relations for the Chicago Bears; and Michael, 20, who will be a junior at St. Norbert College and who already has started to follow in his father's footsteps by working in the school's sports information department.

An ardent golfer, Harlan also is an "involved" fan, closely following the fortunes of the Milwaukee Brewers and Milwaukee Bucks as well as those of the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay, the University of Wisconsin-Madison and his alma mater, Marquette.

JUDGE ROBERT J. PARINS Chairman of the Board

After serving as president and chief executive officer of the Packer Corporation for seven productive years, Judge Robert J. Parins has taken on a new role as chairman of the board.

Only the second man in the team's history to hold the position, Judge Parins was elected to the chairmanship at the organization's annual meeting June 5, 1989 the day on which he retired from the presidency. He succeeded the late Dominic Olejniczak, who died April 14, 1989.

As chairman of the board, Judge Parins will serve as an ex-officio member of the Executive Committee and, with the club president, represent ownership at National Football League meetings and at the NFL Management Council. He also will act in a general advisory capacity to the president and Executive Committee on all matters concerning the interests and the management of the Corporation.

The Judge, who has been succeeded by Robert E. Harlan, became the first full-time president in club annals when elected in 1982. Rapid growth and major changes have characterized his presidency over the intervening seven-year span. During his tenure, he presided over the planning and construction of four major additions to the Packers' physical facilities, which now rank among the finest in the NFL, and saw the corporation's assets mount from $19.5 million when he took office to more than $32,000,000 in 1988.

The building program was inaugurated in 1982 with construction of a 55,000-square foot indoor practice facility. It was followed in 1983 by remodeling and expansion of the administration building and training quarters, a project which more than doubled the size of the existing structure. In 1984, as part of a renegotiated lease with the City of Green Bay, stadium restroom facilities also were doubled and all concession stands were remodeled and modernized. In 1985, seventy-two private boxes were constructed along the east and west sides of Lambeau Field. In 1986, a new and more sophisticated scoreboard was installed in 'Lambeau,' followed by the addition of an improved sound system in 1987. The upgrading process continued this year with expansion of the visitors' dressing room facilities, including a tunnel leading from the field to the locker room, and remodeling of the press box.

Organizationally, Judge Parins made a major change early in 1987 (January 31), when he named Tom Braatz, a former general manager and personnel director of the Atlanta Falcons, to a new position as executive vice president of football operations.

In another historic development, he supervised the creation of the Green Bay Packer Foundation, established May 6, 1987, as a vehicle to assure continued contributions from the Packer organization to charity. In its first two years, the Foundation has made grants exceeding $71,000 to various institutions and programs.

The veteran jurist assumed his responsibilities as president on June 1, 1982, following his resignation as a Brown County circuit court judge (Branch 2 of the 8th Judicial District). He previously had been named principal executive officer at a board of directors' meeting October 11, 1981.

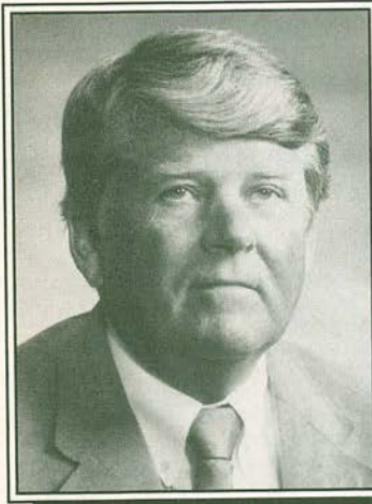

At that point only the eighth man to hold the Packer presidency since the corporation was founded in 1922, he has been a member of the team's official family since May 23, 1966, when elected to the board of directors at the annual stockholder's meeting. Judge Parins later was elected vice president of the Corporation at a board of directors' meeting August 1, 1979.

Born in Green Bay August 23, 1918, he graduated from Green Bay East High School in 1936. He later obtained a bachelor of arts degree in political science from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1940 and a law degree, also from the University of Wisconsin, in 1942.

Upon graduation from law school, he worked for Employers Mutual Insurance Co. in Minneapolis from 1942 through 1944 before returning to Green Bay, in 1944, to open the practice of law in partnership with the late Meyer Cohen. In 1949, he was elected district attorney of Brown County and served one, two-year term. Elected a circuit judge in the spring of 1967, he was formally vested Jan. 2, 1968. On the bench, he earned a state-wide reputation for the fair, efficient and expeditious disposition of the cases brought before him. Although he officially retired in 1982, he continues to serve as a reserve judge on occasion.

Judge Parins and his wife, Elizabeth, have five children and 11 grandchildren.

An active sportsman, he owns a stable just outside Green Bay and regularly works with his horse there. He also is an ardent fisherman and shoots a respectable game of golf.

TOM BRAATZ Executive Vice President of Football Operations

Tom Braatz, one of the most widely respected personnel experts on the pro football scene, is a veteran of 24 years' National Football League experience as a general manager, personnel director and talent scout. The 56-year-old Wisconsin native is in his third year as executive vice president of football operations, a key position in the Packer Corporation's organizational structure.

Braatz, who had been a member of the Atlanta Falcons' front office since the club's inception in 1965, was named to the newly-created post on January 31, 1987 by Judge Robert J. Parins, Packer president and chief executive officer.

His appointment represented a homecoming of sorts for Tom, who is a native of Kenosha, WI, and a graduate of Marquette University.

In his comprehensive role, his duties include hiring and managing of the scouting staff, conducting the college draft in conjunction with the head coach, handling trades and waivers, assimilating all scouting information for the draft and trades, conducting all contract negotiations with players and scouts and serving as liaison between football operations and the club president.

While in Atlanta, Braatz' principal responsibility was overseeing the draft, although he also had handled most of the club's contract negotiations in the later years of his tenure. In the former role, he was responsible for bringing a number of Pro Bowl players to the Falcons, among them William Andrews, Gerald Riggs, Mike Kenn, Bill Fralic and Steve Bartkowski.

Braatz was named general manager of the Falcons in 1982 in an expansion of his duties. He subsequently was reassigned as director of college scouting following the 1985 season as the Falcons moved to streamline areas of responsibility. Braatz previously had been an area scout when he joined the Atlanta organization in 1965 and was appointed director of player personnel in 1969.

Tom's route to Green Bay, as well as league-wide respect, was somewhat circuitous. He grew up as a Packer fan in Kenosha, where he played a major role in his high school's drive to consecutive state football championships as a junior and senior.

Braatz then matriculated at Marquette University in neighboring Milwaukee with the intention of becoming a dentist. Fate, however took a hand. "Once I got into football, that was it," said Tom, who captained the Marquette varsity as a senior.

Following graduation, he entered the Army, rising to the rank of lieutenant before leaving the service. Upon returning to civilian life, he signed with the Washington Redskins as a defensive end, later closing out his pro career under Tom Landry with the expansion Dallas Cowboys in their charter 1960 season.

After his playing days, he worked for the Ithaca Gun Co. as an arms demonstrator while living in Dallas.

Then, unexpectedly, he ran into Vince Lombardi, an encounter which was to have an indirect but profound impact upon his future.

That was in 1965, when the Packers were playing a pre-season game in Dallas. Rankin Smith, chairman of the board of the expansion Falcons, was in town to interview Lombardi for the team's coaching job. A friend of Smith's asked Braatz to pick up Lombardi at the airport and drive him to his hotel. Tom agreed. Smith didn't persuade Lombardi to join the Falcons but he did like Braatz enough to ask him to work as a part-time scout. Braatz agreed.

Twenty-four years later, Braatz is still in personnel, in effect, and still in the NFL.

"I was just doing the guy a favor, and that's how I started in football," Tom says with the customary economy of verbiage. "That was one of the hardest decisions I had to make, though. I loved Dallas."

Braatz and his wife, Jeri, have two sons, Tommy, 26, and Jon, 22.

LEE REMMEL Executive Director of Public Relations

Lee Remmel has been a member of the Packer front office for 15 years, serving as director of public relations in 1974 and from 1980 through 1988, and as director of publicity from 1975 through 1979.

He was named executive director of public relations in March of 1989 by Robert Harlan, then executive vice president of administration, with responsibility for overseeing the public relations and marketing and community relations areas.

Prior to joining the Packer organization on March 24, 1974, Remmel was a sportswriter and columnist for the Green Bay Press-Gazette for 29½ years.

In the course of his two "careers," he has been involved in staffing all 23 Super Bowls played to date, the first eight representing the Press-Gazette and the last 15 as a member of the National Football League's auxiliary media relations staff.

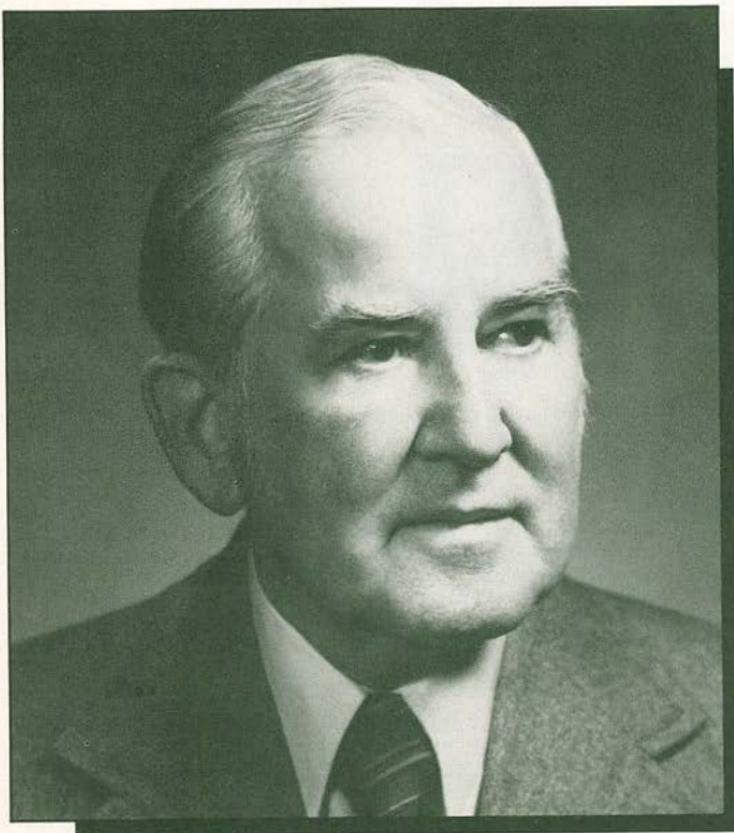

Remmel also is currently a member of the NFL public relations directors' Professional Football Writers Association Liaison Committee, following long service as a member of the statistics committee.

While at the Press-Gazette, he was the only sports writer in Wisconsin to have been directly involved in coverage of the Packers throughout all of the team's coaching regimes to that point, beginning with Packer founder E. L. "Curly" Lambeau and continuing until the naming of Bart Starr in 1975.

In 1967, he was voted "Wisconsin Sportswriter of the Year." He also is a past president of the former Wisconsin Pro Football Writers' Association.

Remmel, a native of Shawano, WI, where he began his career as the sports editor of a weekly newspaper while a Shawano High School freshman, is a member of the executive committee of the Brown County Civic Music Association, along with his wife, Noreen, as well as of the executive board of the Packer 65 Roses Club. He also is a member of the St. Norbert College Fine Arts Committee and the Green Bay School/Business/Industry Partnership Council.

The Green Bay Packers are unique in professional football, in both structure and accomplishment. From an organizational standpoint, they represent the only publicly-owned franchise in the 28-club National Football League. On the field, they have won more championships — eleven — than any other team in the NFL's 70-year history.

Green Bay Packers, Inc., was founded as a non-profit corporation in 1922 under the leadership of A. B. Turnbull, publisher of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, who became the organization's first president. There are 4,626½ shares of stock owned by 1,812 shareholders. The corporation is governed by a seven-man Executive Committee, selected from a 45-man board of directors. (For "The Green Bay Packer Story," turn to page 180).

Robert E. Harlan, ninth president of the corporation, was elected the organization's chief executive officer June 5, 1989, succeeding Judge Robert J. Parins, who was elected chairman of the board.

LINDY INFANTE

Head Coach

In one short year, Lindy Infante has captured the hearts and won the respect of Packer fans, who are convinced he is the man to lead Green Bay's Green and Gold to new National Football League successes.

Already as popular as any Packer head coach within memory, he won their affection in 1988 despite a 4-and-12 record in his shakedown season, the latter traceable in large part to the transitional process of installing a new offensive system.

Infante, who endeared himself to the faithful with his candor, warmth and wit, began to see his labors bear fruit in the late stages of the season, which the Packers closed out with two consecutive victories, upsetting the playoff-bound Vikings and then invading Phoenix to dispatch the Cardinals.

Encouraged by this opportune parlay, the Packer coach was moved to observe, "I feel good about where we're going (and) I feel good about the majority of people that are going to get us there."

Infante, this season marking his 25th year in coaching, brings to his responsibilities a league-wide reputation as one of pro football's premier offensive innovators and a consistent identification with success.

The 49-year-old Miami, FL, native previously played major roles with two winning NFL programs in the '80s—first with the Cincinnati Bengals in their surprising surge to Super Bowl XVI in 1981, and more recently with the Cleveland Browns, who won more games (22) than any other team in the American Football Conference over the 1986 and '87 seasons with him as their offensive coordinator.

Infante, who began developing his highly productive offensive system while at Cincinnati in the first three years of the current decade, became the tenth head coach in the Packers' 70-year history when he signed a five-year contract on February 3, 1988, succeeding Forrest Gregg.

During his second year with the Bengals (1981), when he was the team's quarterback-receivers coach, Cincinnati set team records with 3,999 passing yards and 5,968 total yards en route to a 12-4 record and that Super Bowl XVI appearance against the 49ers. A year later, in the strike-shortened 1982 season, the Bengals finished with a 7-2 mark with Infante as offensive coordinator.

A similar pattern of success emerged during his two seasons at Cleveland. In 1986, his first year as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach, the Browns won more games than any team in the club's history (13), produced the best regular season record in the AFC (12-4), scored the fourth-most points in team history (391), set 15 Browns' offensive playoff records and eight NFL offensive playoff records, came within 37 seconds of playing in the Super Bowl, and improved their offensive rating from 21st to ninth in the NFL.

In 1987, the Browns continued to mount a high-powered offense under Infante, rolling up 390 points—only one fewer than in 1986, in one less game—as they reached the AFC championship game for the second year in a row. Those 390 points represented an AFC best and ranked third in the league as a whole behind San Francisco and New Orleans.

In the process, the Browns demonstrated an impressive ability to activate the scoreboard, scoring on 46 of 54 possessions inside the opponents' 20-yard-line. Significantly, they also exhibited remarkable balance, passing 482 times and rushing 474 times while finishing third in the AFC and fifth in the league in passing.

These imposing figures are a graphic reflection of Infante's "spread the ball around" philosophy. In 1987, the Browns had six players close out the season with 20 or more receptions, with quarterback Bernie Kosar throwing the ball to at least seven receivers in 10 games, and to at least five in every game.

G HEAD COACH

In that two-year span, Infante also was credited with helping Kosar develop into one of the NFL's premier passers.

The Packers' field leader describes his offensive style as "a multiple approach".

"We kind of pride ourselves ... as a reaction-type offense," he says. "It's not one that tries to cram a round peg in a square hole. We're going to be willing to take, and you've heard it said, the standard cliche is to take what the defense gives up, or where the defense is weakest maybe is a better way to approach it.

"We'll spread the field out as best we can, we'll make people cover as much of the field that's left, try to get everybody in the act. We will not be a one-dimensional football team, where one guy or two players on our offense are the guys you have to stop to be successful against us. We'll hope to keep the defense guessing from down to down as to who's going to get the ball and where it's going."

Infante, who has coached at every level over his 25-year career — high school, college and professional — is in his second head coaching venture in the pro ranks. He previously was head coach of the Jacksonville Bulls of the United States Football League in 1984-85, compiling a 15-21 record.

The trim and youthful Floridian, who had joined the Browns following the demise of the USFL, launched his pro coaching career with the Charlotte Hornets of the World Football League in 1975 before moving into the NFL with the New York Giants in 1977. He later joined the Bengals under Forrest Gregg in 1980, remaining with Cincinnati until 1983, when he became head coach at Jacksonville.

Infante launched his coaching career in his hometown, Miami, joining the staff of Miami Senior High School in 1965 — two years after graduating from the University of Florida, where he was a second team, All-Southeastern Conference selection as a running back/defensive back and also a team captain.

A year later, he returned to the U. of Florida as freshman coach and then coached the Gators' defensive backs from 1967 through 1971 before going to Memphis State as offensive coordinator in 1972. He subsequently joined the WFL's Hornets in '75. After the WFL expired, he became offensive coordinator at Tulane in 1976, then returned to the pro ranks with the New York Giants in 1977. After coaching the Giants' receivers for two seasons, Infante returned to Tulane as offensive coordinator for one season, then joined the Bengals in 1980.

Before entering the coaching profession, Infante briefly tried his hand at playing pro football. A 12th round draft selection of the Cleveland Browns and an 11th round choice of the American Football League's Buffalo Bills, he elected to sign with Buffalo and was released before the season started. He subsequently signed with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Canadian Football League and played in one game during a four-week stay, gaining 12 yards in three ball-carrying attempts.

Of Italian descent, the Packers' new head coach was born Gelindo Infante in Miami May 27, 1940. He is the third head coach of Italian extraction in Packer history, following Gene Ronzani (1950-53) and Vince Lombardi (1959-67).

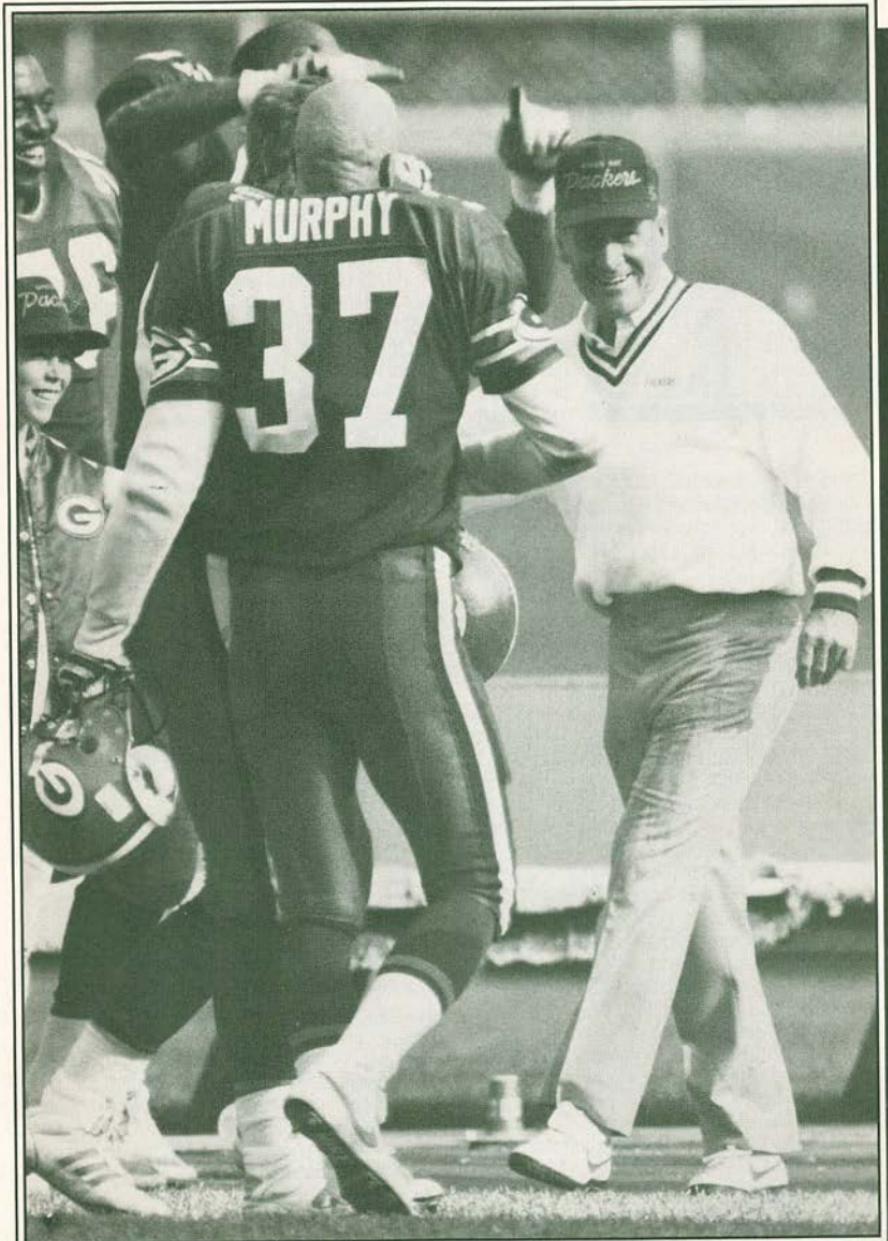

Lindy and his wife, Stephanie, have two sons, Brett, 18, who is entering his freshman year at Kent, OH State, and Brad, 17, a star running back for Green Bay's Southwest High School football team.

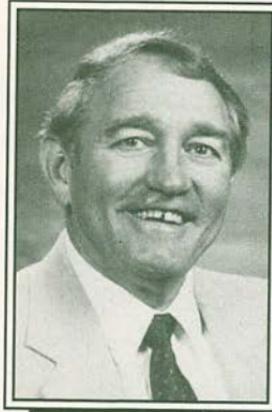

Although he has been in Green Bay and Wisconsin little more than a year, Infante already has earned an impressive reputation as a witty and entertaining speaker, gained in large part during appearances at numerous fund-raising events around the state, to which he has given freely of his time and talents. One of them, the second Lindy Infante Celebrity Invitational Golf Classic, raised more than $32,000 for the Packer 65 Roses Club, an affiliate of the Wisconsin Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, in 1988, and another, a "Lindy Infante Roast," earlier this year, produced in excess of $20,000 for the Special Olympics.

HEAD COACH

HANK BULLOUGH Defensive Coordinator

Long known as the "Doctor of Defense," colorful Hank Bulloough once again demonstrated his right to that prestigious title in 1988. Taking over as defensive coordinator on Lindy Infante's new coaching staff, he proceeded to work the magic for which he has become justly famous.

In 1987, the Packer defense finished 14th in the 28-team National Football League. In 1988, Bulloough arrived upon the Green Bay scene and began putting his personal stamp upon the modus operandi. Employing a host of variations off his basic 3-4 alignment ("I like to give our opponents something to think about during the week when they're preparing for us") and preaching an "attack" philosophy, the loquacious Michigan State alumnus molded the Packer platoon into one of the most effective defenses in the league — so effective that it climbed all the way to seventh place in the final league rankings, highest finish the Packers have had in this category since 1974.

To those familiar with Bulloough's coaching accomplishments, these achievements came as no surprise. At Cincinnati, for example, he transformed a Bengal defense which had finished dead last in 1980 into the fourth-ranked unit in the league en route to Super Bowl XVI in 1981. And two years later, he elevated the Cincinnati group to the league's No. 1 ranking before joining the Packer coaching staff for the first time in 1984.

Earlier, Bulloough had spent seven seasons with New England, two of them as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator, and helped develop the Patriot defense into one of the league's finest.

A native of Scranton, PA., he was named to the Packer staff — for the second time — by Infante February 10, 1988. He and Infante earlier had been fellow members of the Cincinnati coaching staff for three years (1980-82).

Once a Packer player, Hank thus returned to Green Bay for the second time as a coach. He previously had been named defensive coordinator by Forrest Gregg when the latter took over as Green Bay's head coach in 1984. Bulloough later resigned in May of 1984 to become head coach of the Pittsburgh Maulers of the United States Football League. With only four games left in the Mauler season at that point, Hank decided to wait until 1985 before taking the reins, only to see the Mauler franchise dissolve before he put on a headset.

Bulloough subsequently was named head coach of the Buffalo Bills on October 1, 1985, remaining in that capacity through November 3, 1986. He compiled a 4-17-0 record in 21 games, including a 2-10 mark in 1985 and a 2-7 record in 1986 before being replaced by Marv Levy.

The knowledgeable ex-Spartan launched his coaching career at Michigan State in 1959, working with four MSU teams that placed in the wire service polls' collegiate top ten, including the 10-1 team of 1965 that was ranked number one by UPI after winning the Big Ten championship.

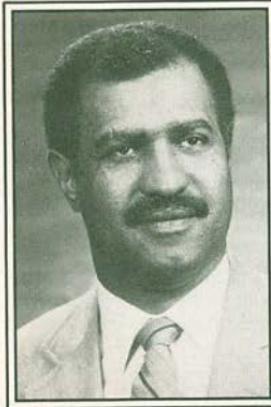

Bulloough left his alma mater in 1970 to join the Colts as linebacker coach, serving in Baltimore for three seasons. As a rookie assistant coach, he was part of a Super Bowl championship team in 1970 on the staff of the late Don McCafferty, helping the Colts to an 11-2-1 regular season record which was climaxed by a 16-13 victory over the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl V.

As a collegian, Hank won three varsity football letters at Michigan State and was drafted by the Packers in the fifth round in 1955. Following his rookie season, his playing career was interrupted by two years in military service. He returned to the Packers in 1958 before leaving to enter the coaching ranks at Michigan State under the late Duffy Daugherty in 1959.

In addition to serving as the Packers' defense coordinator, Bulloough coaches the interior linebackers.

Hank and his wife, LouAnn, have three children — a daughter, Cheryl, and two sons, Shane and Chuck, the latter currently a starting linebacker at Michigan State.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1959-69 (Michigan State); 1970-72 (Baltimore Colts); 1973-79 (New England Patriots); 1980-83 (Cincinnati Bengals); 1984-85 (Pittsburgh Maulers, USFL); 1985-86 (Buffalo Bills); 1988-89 (Green Bay Packers).

GREG BLACHE Defensive Line Coach

Greg Blache, it appears, was meant to be a coach. The football fates made a career decision for him at an early age. The Packers' 40-year-old defensive coach entered his profession quite by chance when a lower leg injury suffered in freshman football at Notre Dame ended his playing career.

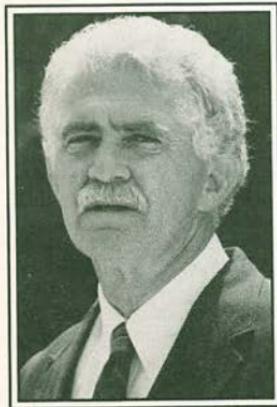

As a sophomore, he subsequently became a student assistant coach under the legendary Ara Parseghian, tutoring Notre Dame's freshman defensive backfield for the next three seasons.

Greg remained on Parseghian's staff as a graduate assistant following graduation and later was named to the Fighting Irish staff as a full-time aide in 1973. He continued in that capacity under new head coach Dan Devine in 1975 before moving a year later to Tulane where he first encountered Packer Head Coach Lindy Infante, then on the Green Wave staff.

Blache returned to Notre Dame in 1981, serving as running back coach that season before taking over the defensive line and linebackers in 1982. Two years later, he joined Infante's Jacksonville Bulls staff. Following the USFL's demise, Blache coached at Southern University in 1986 and at Kansas in 1987. He had just moved to the University of North Carolina early in 1988 when Infante invited him to join the Packer staff February 15, 1988.

An avid hunter and fisherman, Greg was born March 9, 1949. He is married (Bernardine) and the father of three children — Greg, Jr., 19, a junior at Notre Dame; Christopher, 13, who is a high school freshman; and Corinne, 12, in the seventh grade.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1973-75 and 1981-83 (Notre Dame); 1976-80 (Tulane); 1984-85 (Jacksonville, USFL); 1986 (Southern University); 1987 (Kansas); 1988-89 (Green Bay Packers).

JOE CLARK General Offensive Assistant

A resident expert on Lindy Infante's celebrated offense, genial Joseph B. "Joe" Clark can call upon three decades of coaching experience in his assignment as general offensive assistant.

Prior to joining Infante's Green Bay coaching staff in 1988, Clark had been associated with the Packers' head coach in both the college and pro ranks — at Memphis State (1974) and with the Charlotte Hornets of the World Football League in 1975 and the Jacksonville Bulls of the United States Football League in 1984-85.

The 56-year-old Californian, now in his 34th year in the coaching profession, has coached at every level over his extensive career.

In his Packer responsibilities, the former Santa Clara field general helps Infante with the quarterbacks, assists in other position areas, aids in the breakdown of opponents' video and also is involved in game scouting.

Clark, whose experience has been primarily on the offensive side of the ball, launched his coaching career at Wooster College in Ohio in 1958 after spending "about an hour and a half with the Cleveland Browns," as he whimsically puts it. In the college ranks, he also has coached at the University of Detroit (1960-64), Tulane University (1965-70), Nicholls State University (1981-83), Southeastern Louisiana University (1986), in addition to Memphis State and, in the prep ranks, at Loyola High School in his native Los Angeles (1971), Northside High School in Lafayette, LA. (1972-73) and at East Ascension High School in Gonzales, LA. (1976-80). He resigned at Southern University prior to the 1987 season over philosophical differences.

Joe, who says he has been "a disciple of Lindy's for years," was an All-America quarterback in high school at Inglewood, CA. He later played the same position for two varsity seasons at Santa Clara which dropped football following his junior year.

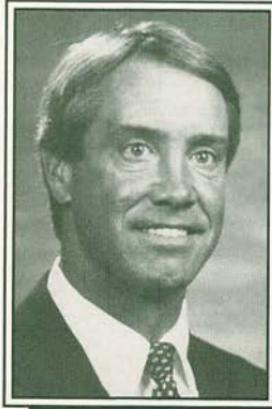

Clark subsequently spent two years in military service at Fort Lewis, WA., in 1955-56, earning all-service honors his second year.

A brief stay with Cleveland followed that stint and Clark says it had a profound effect upon his life.

"Being around Coach (Paul) Brown at the time made me want to get into coaching," he says, "and he helped me get my first couple of coaching jobs."

Clark, born December 22, 1932, is married (Sam).

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1958-59 (Wooster); 1960-64 (University of Detroit); 1965-70 (Tulane); 1974 (Memphis State University); 1975 (Charlotte Hornets, WFL); 1981-83 (Nicholls State University); 1984-85 (Jacksonville Bulls, USFL); 1985 (Southeastern Louisiana); 1986 (Southern University); 1988-89 (Green Bay Packers).

CHARLIE DAVIS Offensive Line Coach

A vocal taskmaster to the huge citizens he instructs in the intricacies of offensive line play, wiry Charlie Davis is a consummate and demanding technician in his challenging role.

The 44-year-old perfectionist, in his second season on the Green Bay staff, is continuing a long standing association with Head Coach Lindy Infante. Davis, a dynamic and persuasive Californian, previously coached with Infante at Tulane, was a member of Lindy's staff when the Packers' head man was head coach of the Jacksonville Bulls of the United States Football League in 1984-85 and later a member of the Cleveland Browns' offensive coaching staff headed by Infante as coordinator in 1986-87.

Davis served as tight end coach on the Cleveland staff, a responsibility in which he tutored the celebrated Ozzie Newsome, pro football's all-time leading receiver among tight ends.

A three-year letterman in football at UCLA he began his coaching career there as a graduate assistant in 1966, as a collegian (1962-64), Davis went on to gain his master's degree at San Francisco State, joining the university's coaching staff at the same time in 1967. He moved to Xavier University in Cincinnati in 1971, then to Ball State in 1974, helping the latter to a 9-2 record in 1975.

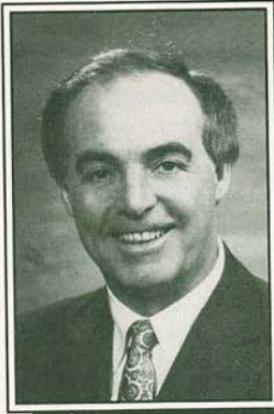

In 1976, Davis moved to Tulane, joining Infante on the Green Wave's coaching staff. When Infante left to sign on with the New York Giants in 1977, Davis became offensive coordinator. He remained on the staff through 1980, helping Tulane reach the Liberty Bowl in 1979, the year Infante returned to the Green Wave staff, and the Hall of Fame Bowl in '80.

Charlie left football at the age of 36 after not reaching his personal objective — becoming a head coach — and went into the oil business in New Orleans for three years, but Infante persuaded him to return to the game when Lindy became head coach at Jacksonville in 1984.

Though undersized by today's standards, Davis played linebacker at Kearny High School while growing up in the San Diego area, then continued in that position at San Diego City College in 1961, and later at UCLA.

Charlie, who joined the Packer staff on February 16, 1988, was born in San Diego August 7, 1944. His wife, Virginia, runs a physical therapy business in New Orleans. They have a grown son, Bret. Charlie, who is fond of popcorn as a luncheon repast, lists reading, golf, jogging and skiing as his favorite pastimes.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1966 (UCLA, graduate assistant); 1967-68 (San Francisco State); 1969-70 (San Diego City College); 1971-73 (Xavier); 1974-75 (Ball State); 1976-80 (Tulane); 1984-85 (Jacksonville, USFL); 1986-87 (Cleveland Browns); 1988-89 (Green Bay Packers).

WAYNE "BUDDY" GEIS Receivers Coach

For Wayne "Buddy" Geis, the effervescent Pennsylvanian who tutors Packer receivers, coaching has been a way of life as long as he can remember.

Geis, a 42-year-old native of Altoona, PA., moved into the coaching ranks immediately following graduation from Lock Haven University in his Keystone State. He returned to his prep alma mater, Altoona High School, at that stage to launch his career, which is now in its 20th year.

Buddy earlier had earned a football scholarship to Northern Arizona University after graduating from high school. There he played wide receiver and started several games his freshman year. After one season at NAU, he transferred to Lock Haven U. and earned a degree in health and physical education.

Following four years of coaching at Altoona, Buddy joined the University of Arizona staff under Jim Young, now head coach at Army.

During his first year there, he earned his master's degree in education. In 1977, he moved to Tulane under Larry Smith, now head coach at USC. At Tulane he met Lindy Infante when the latter returned to the Green Wave staff in 1979. Infante left following that season to join the National Football League's Cincinnati Bengals, while Geis continued on the Tulane staff through the 1982 season, helping the Wave gain the Liberty Bowl in '79 and the Hall of Fame Bowl in '80.

Geis subsequently left Tulane in December of 1982 to become offensive coordinator at the University of Kansas, but before the 1983 season began, received a call from Infante to become receivers coach on his new Jacksonville Bulls staff in the United States Football League. After the USFL's demise following the 1985 season, Buddy moved to Memphis State where he coached the quarterbacks in addition to serving as offensive coordinator.

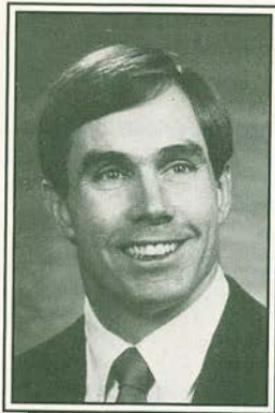

Geis, named to the Packer staff by Infante February 15, 1988, honed the talents of Gary Clark while with Jacksonville. Clark, who since has become an all-pro wide receiver with the Washington Redskins, has credited Geis with accelerating his development.

A tennis buff, Buddy was born September 16, 1946. He is married (Jere) and the father of two children, a son, Adam, 14, and a daughter, Jeni, 10.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1973-76 (Arizona); 1977-82 (Tulane); 1984-85 (Jacksonville, USFL); 1986-87 (Memphis State); 1988-89 (Green Bay Packers).

DICK JAURON

Defensive Backfield Coach

Dick Jauron, one of the National Football League's brightest young coaches, added another feather to his coaching cap in 1988. Under his direction, the Packer secondary continued to make impressive progress, emerging as the only outfield in the NFL not to permit a 100-yard day by an opposing receiver.

A year earlier, the astute Yale alumnus produced a defensive backfield which ranked among the league's elite in preventing "the bomb." The Green Bay secondary gave up only 14 touchdown passes, a season-long performance which ranked second only to that of the San Francisco 49ers, who permitted a league-leading 13 in 1987.

In 1986, Jauron's first full year of coaching, his secondary forged a major increase in interceptions over the previous season, picking off 20 passes compared to 15 in 1985 — a production achieved despite the loss of two starters — strong safety Mark Murphy, who missed the entire season because of a foot problem, and cornerback Tim Lewis, who suffered a career-ending neck injury in the third game of the season against the Chicago Bears.

Jauron, retained by Lindy Infante after he replaced Forrest Gregg as the Packers' head coach in February of 1988, originally was named to the Packer staff by Gregg January 7, 1986, to succeed Ken Riley. Jauron had begun his coaching career in 1985 as a member of the Buffalo Bills' staff under Hank Bullough, now the Packers defensive coordinator.

Dick, who left the business field in Winter Park, FL to join the Bills, earlier had played for Gregg in 1980, the latter's first year as head coach at Cincinnati. Suffering a knee injury that season which ended his playing career, he subsequently assisted the Bengal coaching staff during Cincinnati's 1981 Super Bowl season while spending the year on injured reserve. Gregg later offered Jauron a coaching job the following season but Dick decided to go into business.

A graduate of Yale, where he ranks as one of the school's all-time football greats, the 38-year-old Jauron entered professional football in 1973 as a fourth round selection of the Detroit Lions and was named to the Pro Bowl following the 1974 season, his second in the NFL. Released by the Lions August 23, 1978, he signed with Cincinnati six days later and was a Bengal starter until he suffered the knee injury in Game 10 of the '80 season.

Jauron made 26 interceptions over his eight pro seasons, including a career-high six for Cincinnati in 1979, and returned two of them for touchdowns. He also recovered 14 fumbles overall. Employed as a kick returner in the early years of his NFL career, he posted a 10.2-yard average for 44 punt returns, including an impressive 16.8-yard average for 17 runbacks in 1974.

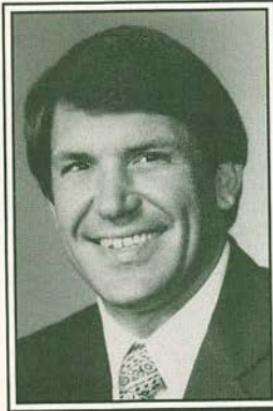

After retiring as a player, he owned a health fitness center in Cincinnati with teammate Jimmy Corbett. He sold his interest in the business in 1983 and moved to Florida, where he was employed by Nautilus until he joined the Buffalo coaching staff in July of 1985.

Born Richard Manual Jauron in Peoria, IL, on Oct. 7, 1950, he was a nine-letter winner at Swampscott High School (three each in football, basketball and baseball) before going on to entrench himself among Yale's all-time football elite. An offensive back as a collegian, he still owns Yale's career rushing record (2,947 yards in 515 attempts, a 5.7-yard average), and holds the second longest run from scrimmage in the school's history (an 87-yard maneuver against Columbia in 1972). A three-letter winner, he was named to the Kodak and Walter Camp All-America teams following his senior season and was chosen to play in the East-West Shrine game.

A career in football was almost inevitable for the soft-spoken Ivy Leaguer. Dick's father, Robert, was a successful college coach, once leading St. Joseph's College of Rensselaer, IN, to the national small college championship during the late '50s.

Dick and his wife, Gail, are the parents of two daughters, Kacy (born 4/2/85) and Amy (born 10/3/86).

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1985 (Buffalo, NFL); 1986-89 (Green Bay Packers).

VIRGIL KNIGHT

Tight Ends/Strength/Conditioning

A man of multiple responsibilities, Virgil Knight coaches the Packers' tight ends in addition to supervising both the strength and conditioning programs.

Knight, a Packer pioneer in the latter role, became the first strength and conditioning coach in the team's history in 1984. A 14-year coaching veteran of the college ranks, he was named to the Green Bay staff by Forrest Gregg, then assembling his board of strategy as the Packers' new head coach.

Knight, previously a position coach, brought five years' experience as a strength coach to this Green Bay role. He first assumed those duties in 1979 when he moved from Arkansas Tech to the University of Florida. He left Florida in 1981 to become a member of Coach Pat Dye's staff at Auburn, spending three years at the Alabama institution before joining the Packer organization.

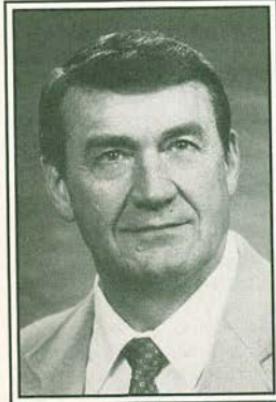

The Clarksville, AR, native was retained by Lindy Infante when he took over as Green Bay's head coach in 1988 and assigned to coach the tight ends in addition to coordinating the strength and conditioning programs.

Born January 30, 1948, Knight began his coaching career in 1971 at Sylvan Hills High School in North Little Rock, AR. After one year there and three years at Marist, GA, High School, he moved into the college ranks at Arkansas Tech, where he coached the defensive line and linebackers for four years and also was head track coach.

As an athlete himself, Virgil won all-state honors in football, was an all-district selection in basketball and a 3 year track letterman in high school, in his native Clarksville. He later attended Northeast Oklahoma State University, where he was named to the All-Oklahoma College Athletic Conference football team in both his junior and senior years, and also competed in track. Holding school record in the hurdles.

Virgil and his wife, Becky, a school teacher in the Green Bay system, have two sons, Trent, 15, and Josh, 8.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1975-78 (Arkansas Tech); 1979-80 (University of Florida); 1981-83 (Auburn); 1984-89 (Green Bay Packers).

RICHARD T. "DICK" MOSELEY

Outside Linebackers

Dick Moseley, who tutors the Packers' outside linebackers, did not start out to become a football coach. A graduate of Detroit's Central High School, Moseley earned a physical education degree at Eastern Michigan University in 1956 and then spent two years pursuing a career in professional baseball. After two years in the Dodger organization, which saw him reach the Class A level at Elmira, N.Y., he decided to switch his "major" to football.

Moseley thereupon launched his coaching career — one which has seen him coach in three professional leagues (the NFL, USFL and Arena) — at Hazel Park, MI, High School. He later coached at Mount Clemens, Wyandotte and Flint, MI., before entering the college ranks at his alma mater, Eastern Michigan, in 1968 as defensive backfield coach. He was an immediate success, his secondary proceeding to lead the nation in pass interceptions in his first year there with 29.

Dick went on to become defensive coordinator at Wichita State in

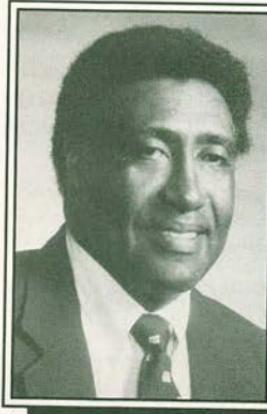

G ASSISTANT COACHES

1971 before moving to the University of Minnesota in the same capacity in 1972. Under his direction, the Gopher defense set a record for takeaways in a season in 1973 (38) and later established another Big Ten mark by permitting no touchdown passes during the 1975 season.

Moseley joined the University of Colorado staff in 1979 and subsequently entered the pro ranks with the New Jersey Generals of the USFL in 1982. He joined the USFL's Pittsburgh Maulers the following year, then moved to the NFL and Buffalo Bills in 1984 before signing on with the Arena League's Chicago Bruisers in 1987.

Dick has two sons Michael and Thomas. He lists outdoor sports and travel as his favorite pastimes.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1968-70 (Eastern Michigan); 1971 (Wichita State); 1972-78 (University of Minnesota); 1979-81 (Colorado); 1982 (New Jersey Generals); 1983 (Pittsburgh Maulers, USFL); 1984-85 (Buffalo Bills); 1987 (Chicago Bruisers, Arena Football League); 1988-89 (Green Bay Packers).

WILLIE PEETE Offensive Backfield Coach

Willie Peete, the fatherly and soft-spoken mentor of Packer running backs, is in the 27th year of a coaching career which has seen him specialize on the offensive side of the ball.

Willie, a former University of Arizona athlete and coach, served as offensive backfield coach of the Kansas City Chiefs for four years before being named to Green Bay's staff by then Head Coach Forrest Gregg February 13, 1987.

The 51-year-old Peete, a native of Mesa, AZ, earlier had been an assistant coach at the University of Arizona for 12 years prior to joining the Kansas City organization in 1983 as an original member of John Mackovic's staff.

Peete, described as "a quality coach" by Gregg in making the appointment, launched his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Arizona, as a graduate assistant while completing his degree in physical education. He returned to his hometown, Mesa, upon graduation and became an assistant coach in both football and track at Mesa High School. He subsequently moved to a new high school, Westwood, where he served as an assistant in football and then as junior varsity basketball coach for seven years, a period during which he earned his master's degree in secondary education from Arizona State.

Willie later returned to the University of Arizona in 1971, joining the coaching staff on a full-time basis and staying on until he signed on with the Chiefs prior to the 1983 NFL season.

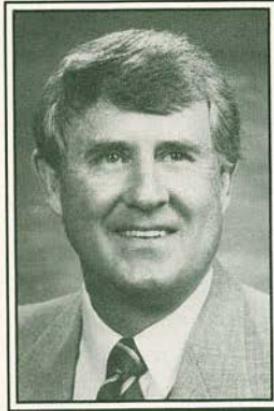

A talented, all-around athlete, Peete won four varsity letters in football at the University of Arizona, where he played fullback. He earlier had earned nine letters—three each in football, basketball and baseball—in a three-year high school program at Mesa.

Willie and his wife, Edna, have two sons who also have excelled in football—Willie, Jr. (Skip), a varsity wide receiver at Kansas who had tryouts with the New York Jets in both 1986 and 1987, before joining the University of Pittsburgh coaching staff in 1988, and Rodney, a talented quarterback who was drafted by the Detroit Lions in April and may find himself playing against his father's Packers this 1989 season.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1971-82 (University of Arizona); 1983-86 (Kansas City Chiefs); 1987-89 (Green Bay Packers).

ASSISTANT COACHES

HOWARD "TIP" TIPPETT Special Teams Coordinator

A 53-year-old native of Tallahassee, AL., Howard "Tip" Tippett, is a genuine coaching veteran — a man who has not only coached in two professional leagues but on both coasts as well as in "America's heart-land" at the college level.

Tippett's imposing biography includes nine seasons in the pro ranks and 12 years as a defensive coordinator in college football.

A graduate of East Tennessee State University in 1959, the affable Alabamian began his coaching career that year at Lafayette High School in Lexington, KY. He moved into the college ranks at Tulane in 1963, and later to the Universities of Houston, West Virginia, Wake Forest and Mississippi State before venturing into pro football with the Jacksonville Express of the World Football League under Charlie Tate in 1974.

After the WFL expired in 1975, Tip joined the Washington State staff. He subsequently moved to the University of Oregon in 1977, then to Mississippi State for a second time in 1979, and to UCLA under Terry Donahue in 1980.

Following the latter assignment, he became linebacker/special teams coach at Tampa Bay in 1981, highlighting a four-year stint under John McKay by coaching the linebackers and special teams for the National Football Conference squad in the 1982 Pro Bowl. He retained those responsibilities under Leeman Bennett for two additional years (1985-86) after the latter succeeded McKay. Tippett then joined the University of Illinois staff in 1987 as defensive coordinator under Mike White.

Howard, the father of four daughters, Paige, JoAnn, Terri and Kimberly, was born September 23, 1935.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1963-65 (Tulane); 1966 and 1970-71 (West Virginia); 1967-69 (University of Houston); 1972 (Wake Forest); 1973 and 1979 (Mississippi State); 1974-75 (Jacksonville Express, WFL); 1976 (Washington State); 1977-78 (Oregon); 1980 (UCLA); 1981-86 (Tampa Bay Buccaneers); 1987 (Illinois); 1988-89 (Green Bay Packers).

John Anderson - 59

LINEBACKER • MICHIGAN • 12TH YEAR
 HT: 6-3 • WT: 228 • BORN: 2/14/56 • (ACQ: D-1B, '78)

PRO: A consummate and committed professional, John Anderson is both a key team leader and a definitive role model for his teammates ... Now in his twelfth season the club's oldest player in terms of Packer service, he saw his leadership qualities officially recognized in 1988 when his teammates voted him co-captain of the defensive unit ... His position coach, Dick Moseley, may be the ex-Michigan Academic All-American's biggest fan ... Appreciative of Number 59's exemplary approach to his profession, Moseley says of him, "What I really like about John Anderson — after having been in the league as long as he has

— is his dedication to his profession. It's a credit to his character and his ability, and a good reflection for the younger players. He came into mini-camp this year and ran good times — his times on testing day were in the upper ranks of the linebackers. He's definitely a leader by example" ... The 33-year-old Wisconsin native turned in a characteristically consistent performance in 1988, registering 69 solo tackles, including one quarterback sack, and 16 assists ... Also broke up two passes and recovered a fumble ... Supplemented these contributions by recording two solo tackles on punt coverage, along with one assist ... Forged one of his better efforts in a 34-14 victory over the Vikings at Minneapolis October 16, pacing the defense in solo tackles with six ... Also shared tackle honors against Detroit (November 20) with six and posted a strong performance against the Bears at Chicago (November 27) with 7 solos, including a sack, and 2 assists ... Was not able to play at Detroit (December 4) because of a sprained ankle suffered in the Chicago contest, marking the first time he had not started a game since Game Five of the '86 season when he suffered a broken leg at Minnesota ... One of the most disciplined and dependable players in Packer history, he emerged as the No. 2 tackler on the defensive platoon in 1987 with 65 solos ... The total included four QB sacks, which tied him for team runnerup honors ... He also made two interceptions (he has a career total of 24), broke up five other passes and recovered three fumbles ... These contributions added up to an outstanding comeback from a major injury — the broken leg he incurred in the first quarter of Game Four of the '86 season vs. the Vikings (September 28) ... That mishap ended a 77-game starting streak, then the second in longevity on the Packer roster ... He made 21 tackles, along with six assists, and one interception before being injured ... Earlier was voted the Packers' Most Valuable Defensive Player for three consecutive seasons (1982-83-84) by Wisconsin and Upper Michigan sports media ... Equally effective at playing the run or the pass, he had his most productive season to date in '83 when he stacked up 120 solo tackles, including four QB sacks, made 5 interceptions to share the team lead, and knocked down 7 other passes ... Highlighted his personal season that year by returning one of those intercepts 27 yards for his first pro touchdown vs. Tampa Bay in Green Bay (October 2) ... His three consecutive MVP laurels accentuated a heartwarming comeback for the resilient veteran, hampered by injuries during his first three pro seasons, in each of which he suffered a fracture of the left arm ... Wears a specially designed protective device designed by Packer Trainer Domenic Gentile to safeguard the arm, broken for the first time in Game 12 of his baptismal rookie 1978 season at Tampa (December 3), again in a training camp scrimmage July 28, 1979 and a third time in Game Nine at Pittsburgh Nov. 2, 1980 ... Missed first nine games of the '79 season and last 7 of '80 because of the latter two injuries ... Underwent remedial surgery in late 1980, a procedure in which bone was grafted from a hip into the left arm ... Operation was designed to give the bone greater density ... Anderson, an accomplished all-around athlete, demonstrated his versatility upon returning to action in 1979 by kicking 39-yard field goal in his first—and to date, only—pro placekicking attempt ... Earned consensus NFL all-rookie honors in '78, when he made four interceptions in his first three games ... Had been listed as backup punter on Packer depth chart earlier in his career ... Averaged better than 40 yards for a career total of 180 punts at Michigan.

Tom Braatz, the Packers' executive vice president of football operations, likens him to another young OL candidate. "He's kind of like Dave Croston (a third round selection in 1987 who impressed last year in his second season)," Braatz said. "We like this guy as well" ... Although Ariey, (the name is pronounced AIR-EE-AY) has not played a regular season game in his two seasons with the Giants, he impressed as a starter in the team's first two pre-season games in 1988 — the first of them against the Packers ... He goes 100 miles an hour. He's real intense — a sort of green beret type of guy" ... Blache simultaneously made a prediction. PRO: Professional football's leading active interceptor and a truly remarkable athlete, Dave Brown begins his 15th National Football League season at one of the game's most challenging positions — cornerback ... Most members of his draft class — 1975 — have long since departed the NFL scene but Brown continues to perform at a high level with seemingly effortless facility ... Hank Bullough, the Packers' defensive coordinator, has perhaps best described the 36-year-old veteran. "It doesn't look like he can run real fast," Bullough says of Dave, "but nobody beats him" ... Brown highlighted his 14th pro season in

Registered No. 56 vs. Vikings at Minnesota (Oct. 16) ... Earlier made his first intercept of the season off Dan Marino Sept. 18 and his second the following week vs. the Bears (Sept. 25) ... In only his second season with Green Bay after 11 years with Seattle, he was selected as defensive co-captain by his teammates in recognition of the quiet and positive leadership he has provided since coming to the Packers in a pre-season, draft choice trade with the Seahawks (August 28, 1987) ... Collected 35 solo tackles overall and broke up three passes, in addition to recording those three intercepts while starting all 16 games ... Extended his consecutive game streak to 113 in the process (82 of them with Seattle) ... Quickly stabilized the Packer secondary and became a team leader after being acquired from the Seahawks ... In addition to sharing club interception honors with three, he led the entire secondary in pass deflections with 13 ... Also weighed in with 35 tackles and two assists ... The softspoken University of Michigan alumnus had stepped in at right cornerback, left vacant by the departure of Mossy Cade ... A natural leader, he was voted defensive captain by his teammates for four straight years while at Seattle (1983-86) ... Ranked second on Seattle team in games played and starts (159) prior to being traded to the Packers ... Had missed only six games during his career, all in 1981 with a broken leg suffered in a game at Cincinnati ... Played in 200 games prior to '89 season with 187 starts ... Led Seahawks in interceptions in four different seasons — 1976 (3), 1979 (5), 1980 (6) and 1986 (5) ... Was responsible for impressive total of 12 takeaways during the 1983 season — six interceptions, two fumble

Robert Brown - 93

DEFENSIVE END • VIRGINIA TECH • 8TH YEAR

HT: 6-2 • WT: 267 • BORN: 5/21/60 • (ACQ: D-4, '82)

PRO: One of the most durable performers in Green Bay's long history, Robert Lee Brown has suited up for every game the Packers have played since he joined them as a fourth round selection in 1982 — a span of seven seasons and 104 games... It is the longest such streak by a current and lifetime Packer (teammate Dave Brown has played in 113 consecutive games but spent his first 12 seasons with the Seattle Seahawks and Pittsburgh)... In addition to representing the epitome of durability, the brawny North Carolinian also is a model of consistency a quality which has prompted Defensive Line Coach Greg Blache to observe, "Robert Brown is not a spectacular player — he's not flashy... he's just solid and sound. One thing you always know — Robert Brown's job is going to get done... He's a blue collar guy. He takes his lunch pail to work and he's going to work his shift, and he's going to be done... He's a fox-holer — a guy you can count on" ... Takes on a new challenge this season — moving from right end, where he has been primarily stationed since 1983 — to left end, a move designed to maximize his best asset, playing the run, and the passrushing skills of Shawn Patterson, transferred to Brown's former station... Blache is confident Brown will be equal to the task... "Robert Brown is a company guy 100 per cent," he said. "He knows he's one of the best two-gappers in the league — he takes great pride in that. To go on the left side and maintain that reputation against anything they put on him — I believe he'll do it and do it well" ... Hank Bullough, the Packers' defensive coordinator, also is impressed with Number 93's strength... "Robert Brown," he declares, "could two-gap an elephant" ... For the record, Brown has bench pressed over 400 pounds... Ranked second in unassisted tackles among Packer down linemen in 1988 with 39... Also weighed in with 17 assists, 11/2 sacks for 15 yards in losses, deflected one pass and forced one fumble... Collected 20 solo tackles in 1987, including three QB sacks for 18 yards in losses, ... Also batted down four passes and captured team runnerup honors in fumble recoveries with four, a figure bettered only by Brian Noble, who had five... Registered 32 unassisted stops in 1986, matching the production of fellow starter LE Alphonso Carreker... Led defensive platoon in fumble recoveries with four, in 1985, a season in which he played extensively in all 16 games for the first time, and started four... Also forged the Packers' only safety of the season, submerging Lions quarterback Joe Ferguson in the Detroit end zone during a 43-10 Packer victory (October 6)... The tireless Virginia Tech alumnus also highlighted his 1985 production by posting three sacks among 17 unassisted tackles... Punctuated his personal season in 1985 by intercepting a Gary Hogeboom pass vs. Dallas (Sept. 23) and returning it 5 yards for a third quarter touchdown — the Packers' only score of the afternoon as well as his first interception and first TD as a professional... Also proved to be effective pass rusher in '84, collecting five sacks... Launched Packer career as a linebacker in his rookie, '82 season, transferring to defensive end in 1983... Was special teams standout in '83, playing major role in kickoff coverage team's third place finish in National Football Conference statistics... Paced that unit with 16 unassisted tackles... Also was key contributor on Packer kamikaze squads as a rookie, making nine solo tackles during strike-shortened 9-game season... A fourth round draft choice in 1982 (98th player selected).

Blair Bush - 51

CENTER • WASHINGTON • 12TH YEAR
 HT: 6-3 • WT: 272 • BORN: 11/25/56 • (ACQ: FA, '89)

PRO: A solid professional and a veteran of 11 seasons, the mustachioed ex-Seahawk is considered a formidable contender for pre-eminence at center ... Acquired March 7, 1989 during the "Plan B" free agent period, he has been a starter throughout his pro career, which began with the Cincinnati Bengals, who made him their second first round selection in 1978 (the 16th player taken) ... Charlie Davis, the Packers' offensive line coach, is understandably impressed with Bush's credentials ... He says of him, "Blair has great experience. He's an established NFL starter who has proven himself. He's very intelligent and, just in our off season program, showed good leadership ability ... We felt lucky to get him in the free agency pool because he had such a good year last year" ... Bush played in all 16 games for the playoff-bound Seahawks last season and started 14 ... Did not start two of them because of a knee sprain but handled long snap duties in both of those ... Overall he has started 147 of the 151 games in which he has played for Seattle ... Had become an immediate starter with the Bengals as a rookie in 1978, a role he filled until traded to Seattle following the 1982 season for a 1985 first round draft choice ... Missed the last nine games of the 1986 season with a knee injury, suffered vs. New York Giants.

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman and two-year starter for the University of Washington's Huskies ... James Campen - 63

CENTER • TULANE • 3RD YEAR
 HT: 6-3 • WT: 270 • BORN: 6/11/64 • (ACQ: FA, '89)

PRO: An impressive acquisition in the off-season "Plan B" free agent market, the massive Tulane alumnus appears primed to mount a challenge for the starting job at center, according to Offensive Line Coach Charlie Davis ... "He legitimately has a chance to start," says Davis. "He has a tremendous attitude and great work habits ... James also is strong — he tested the most on the 'bench' of any offensive linemen. And he has excellent, quick feet" ... Ironically, Campen had to talk his way into the New Orleans Saints' training camp when he graduated from Tulane University in 1986 ... In fact, he didn't make the Saints' roster as a rookie but caught on the next year, backing up Steve Korte and Joel Hilgenberg ... He played in all three replacement games for New Orleans that season and was active with the Saints for 12 games in 1988, playing in three.

Mark Cannon - 58

CENTER • TEXAS-ARLINGTON • 6TH YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 270 • BORN: 6/4/62 • (ACQ: D-11, '84)

PRO: The Packers' starting center since 1985, the genial Texan is committed to improving upon a 1988 season he labels "not as productive as some I've had." Also to fending off the challenges of recently acquired veterans Blair Bush (Seahawks) and James Campen (Saints)... Highly motivated, he has worked industriously toward this end in the off-season, explaining, "Lindy (Coach Lindy Infante) is turning the team around and I believe we're headed for the playoffs, ... I want to be part of that ... I want to be here — I wouldn't want to play anywhere else" ... Charlie Davis, Cannon's position coach, remains impressed with number 58's assets. "Mark is an intelligent, steady kind of a guy who has to make a lot of calls from his position — he has to understand everything that's going on, and he does," Davis says. "He's kind of the fulcrum of the offensive line — not only being in the center but being the type of person he is. He's a good leader. He also has excellent work habits. I'm hoping he will come back and have a better year than he did in '88" ... Started all 16 games last season, running his starting streak to 28 games ... Had rebounded from an injury-marred 1986 season to start and play all 12 non-strike games in 1987 ... A low (11th round) draft choice coming out of Texas-Arlington in 1984, Cannon became the biggest individual success story of the Packers' 1985 season, making the quantum leap from special teams long snapper to starting status following Pro Bowler Larry McCarron's injury-enforced retirement... Later won plaudits from his offensive line coach, Jerry Wampfler, who called him the most improved player in the offensive line ... Also earned admiration of former Philadelphia Eagles coach Dick Vermeil, who late in that '85 season tabbed him as the offensive line's standout ... Also handled all of the snaps on punts, extra points and field goals ... Was hampered by injuries in 1986, injuring left knee in Game Five against Cincinnati at Milwaukee and spending five weeks on injured reserve ... Re-injured left knee against Bears at Chicago the following Sunday and was sidelined for the balance of the season ... Had served as the Packers' long snapper in his rookie season, when he also was a factor on kickoff coverage, collecting six solo tackles ... He earlier had beaten out Larry Rubens, a three-year veteran, for the backup center berth.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter at Texas-Arlington ... Co-captain as both junior and senior ... Electrical engineering major.

PERSONAL: Given name Mark Maida Cannon ... Married (Jenny) and father of daughter Abbie, born 6/21/88 ... Serves as Packers' player representative ... Born in Whittier, CA... All-district selection at defensive tackle at S. F. Austin High School (Austin, TX) ... Hometown: Austin.

Had best day as a blocker against New England at Milwaukee Oct. 9, serving as the lead blocker for Brent Fullwood as the latter gained a career high 118 yards rushing ... A model of versatility, he could play quarterback if needed, having been recruited at the University of Alabama as a high school QB ... Scored Packers' only TD of the afternoon vs. the Giants a week later ... Earlier had posted his first score of the season as a receiver, pulling in a 7-yard Don Majkowski pass in the end zone, staking the Packers to a 13-0 lead over the Denver Broncos at that point ... Later registered what proved to be Green Bay's winning TD in a 23-3 victory over the Chiefs ... Closed out season as Packers' No. 4 rusher (192 yards in 64 attempts) and No. 4 scorer (24 points) ... His 24 points enabled him to share team runnerup scoring honors with Phillip Epps and James Lofton ... Had best rushing performance of that season against the Buccaneers at Tampa Dec. 14, gaining 56 yards in 11 carries ... Carruth, describing himself, says, "I do everything to a certain level. I'm not great at any one thing. I'm not a great runner, not a great receiver, not a great blocker, but good enough at all of them to get the job done" ... Signed on with Birmingham following his senior season at Alabama ... Attracted the attention of then Packer Coach Forrest Gregg as a member of the South squad in the 1985 Senior Bowl, when Gregg coached the South ... Was subsequently chosen Senior Bowl's MVP ... Made a fourth and final interception against the Patriots the following week ... Also broke up 4 other passes and forced one fumble over the season, finishing the year with 32 solo tackles and 7 assists ... TIGHT END • PORTLAND STATE • 8TH YEAR

PRO: Former Super Bowl starter (SB XXII) figures to be a prominent factor in the tight end competition based on an impressive performance in mini-camps ... Was employed primarily in a backup role or in two-TE alignments after joining Green Bay Sept. 6, 1988, following release by Washington ... Had to be content with 5 receptions, a modest total for one of his skills and background, good for 37 yards ... Did have the honor of scoring the last touchdown of the '88 season for the Packers — on a 2-yard pass from Don Majkowski — in finale against Cardinals at Phoenix (Dec. 18) ... Virgil Knight, the Packers' tight end coach, expects

Didier to make a serious bid for the starting assignment, observing, "He's going to get into the hunt" ... Knight says of the former Portland State athlete: "Clint's a good receiver and he's got good speed — the ability to get deep ... He looks better than he did last season, when he came in late and missed all of the training camp. He didn't know the system, so he had to learn from week to week. He didn't have any base to reach back to." ... Has impressive career statistics, having caught 129 passes for 1,815 yards (a 13.9 average) and 19 TDs during six seasons with Washington ... Had most productive year in 1985 when he registered 41 catches for 433 yards and 4 TDs ... Also caught 34 for 691 yards — an imposing 20.3-yard average — and 4 TDs in 1986 ... Had to be content with 13 catches in 1987, when he missed two games because of injury, but later finished the season on a high note, climaxing the Redskins' record-breaking 35-point second quarter against Denver in Super Bowl XXII with an 8-yard scoring catch ... A sure-handed, clutch receiver, he made 18 receptions for 267 yards and 2 TDs in playoff and Super Bowl action overall ... Didier, who played wide receiver in college, was a 12th round selection of the Redskins in the 1981 draft (314th player chosen) and spent that season on injured reserve with a pulled hamstring ... Employed largely in a reserve role in the next two seasons (1982-83), he had only 11 receptions to his credit going into the '84 season before blossoming as a starter ... Made 105 catches for 14 touchdowns over the ensuing three seasons, scoring five TDs in 1984 despite missing the first five games because of a broken fibula in his right leg ... Had four TDs on only 9 receptions in '83, his scores coming on catches of 40, 29, 18 and 7 yards ... Also scored that season by recovering a John Riggins fumble in the end zone against the Packers in the highest scoring "Monday Night Football" game ever played (Green Bay 48, Washington 47) ... Was spotted by Redskin Coach Joe Gibbs as a senior at Portland State when Gibbs went to the school to work out quarterback Neil Lomax ... Clint was catching Lomax's passes and impressed Gibbs ... Was "deprived" of a chance to make it three in a row after being pressed into service as a starter in 1986 ... RUNNING BACK • AUBURN • 3RD YEAR
 HT: 5-11 • WT: 209 • BORN: 10/10/63 • (ACQ: D-1, '87)

PRO: Former Auburn star led the Packers' offense in three departments in 1988 (rushing, scoring and kickoff returns) ... Coach Lindy Infante is expecting increased production from the talented St. Cloud, FL, native in 1989 ... "Last year, Brent Fullwood was projected to be our featured back but we couldn't keep him on the field enough — either because of injuries or because of overall grasp of what we were doing, whatever," Infante said in looking to the new season. "He's got to take the challenge to be our back and to make something happen. If he does that, then we'll be a better football team" ... Overall, Fullwood played in 14 games and started 10 — all at fullback — and led Green Bay's rushers with 483 yards in 101 attempts, a 4.8 average ... He also was the team's leading scorer with 48 points (on 8 rushing TDs) and kickoff returner (a 20.0 average for 21 runbacks) ... He demonstrated his potential capabilities against the New England Patriots at Milwaukee Oct. 9 when he registered the best rushing day of his pro career, rolling up 118 yards in 14 attempts and scoring three TDs on runs of 33, 31 and 7 yards ... It was the only 100-yard rushing day of the season by a Green Bay running back and the first by a Packer since Oct. 25, 1987 when Kenneth Davis engineered a 129-yard performance against the Detroit Lions ... Returned to the starting lineup at Minnesota the following week and was off to an impressive start, averaging 6.8 yards on six carries, but twisted an ankle in the second quarter and left the game ... Saw little action for the next three weeks, then returned to form with a 68-yard rushing effort (in 12 attempts) against the Colts (Nov. 13) ... Later registered 65 yards in 11 attempts vs. Lions Dec. 4 before being re-injured and was inactive for last two games of the season ... Was Packers' No. 2 rusher as a rookie in 1987 with 274 yards in 84 carries, good for a 3.3 average and a team-leading 5 touchdowns ... PRO: The first veteran free agent the Packers acquired during the off-season's "Plan B" program, he is expected to make a strong bid for the starting assignment at fullback ... The Packer coaching staff feels the 6-foot-2, 227-pound newcomer, a former No. 1 draft choice of the Philadelphia Eagles, will be a major contender ... "Michael Haddix was graded by our coaches as having a chance to start for this football team", according to Tom Braatz, the Packers' executive vice president of football operations. Was Eagles' No. 1 draft choice in 1983 (the eighth selection overall) ... Filled a variety of roles in his first three years with Philadelphia — running back, fullback and "move" back in the one-back offense used by the Birds in 1985 — before finally concentrating at fullback in 1986 ... PRO: Monolithic ex-Hawkeye, now in his eighth NFL season, is the ranking member of the Packers' offense ... The oldest performer on the platoon in point of Packer service, he has been a starter for the past five seasons and offensive captain since 1986 ... Charlie Davis, his position coach, calls him "one of the real leaders of the offensive line ... Ron is very conscientious about assignments and has real good experience. He's been in the league a long time and he understands what's going on in front of him most of the time. He's also worked hard in the off season to improve his strength" ... The Packers' No. 1 draft choice out of the

Also led the offensive line in cuts and knockdowns (the number of times a lineman gets an opponent off his feet) ... Following that season-long performance, Jerry Wampfler, then the Packers' offensive line coach, said, "I think Ron is capable of going to the Pro Bowl level. I think that would be the next step for him."

PRO: Poised to take his place among pro football's linebacking elite following an outstanding, season-long performance in 1988, his third year in the NFL ... Head Coach Lindy Infante, impressed with Number 97's talents and intensity, says of him, "Timmy Harris ... is right on the edge of making a statement in the league and being a Pro Bowler ... I think he came close last year. I would hope he'd have the kind of season in '89 that would let him get the recognition that he deserves" ... Dick Moseley, Harris's position coach, also is convinced the big Tennesseean is on the verge of super-stardom. "I think Tim's next enough to rank him fifth in the league as a whole — behind only Reggie White of the Eagles (18) Kevin Greene of the Rams (16.5), Lawrence Taylor of the Giants (15.5) and Freddie Joe Nunn of Phoenix (14.0) ... Finished as the Packers' No. 2 tackler with 83 solos, added 28 assists, broke up 2 passes and forced 2 fumbles ... Enhanced these efforts by registering two safeties to tie a club and league record, and blocking a punt and returning it for a touchdown ... Both safeties came against the Vikings and both involved felling quarterback Wade Wilson in Minnesota's end zone ... The first came in the third quarter of the team's first meeting of the season at the Minneapolis Metrodome October 16, the second in the fourth quarter of their rematch in Green Bay December 11 ... Harris engineered the punt block in the first Viking contest, deflecting a Bucky Scribner punt into the air midway through the final period, camping under it like a baseball outfielder to retrieve it in stride and return 10 yards for a touchdown ... Was acclaimed as the National Football Conference's "Defensive Player of the Week" following that performance, which included five solo tackles, two quarterback sacks, the safety and the blocked punt for the TD ... A starter since the seventh game of his rookie, '86 season, Harris registered 7 1/2 sacks to lead the Packer defense for the first time that season despite starting only 10 games, and repeated for the honor in 1987 with 7 ... Now has career total of 28 sacks in 38 starts ... Was fifth-ranking tackler on the defense overall in 1987 with 55 solo and 11 assists ... Also broke up three passes ... Captured Packer "Rookie of the Year" laurels in a runaway in 1986 ... In addition to pacing the platoon in sacks, he broke up three passes, forced two fumbles and recovered one ... Made an impressive starting debut at Cleveland Oct. 19 ... Amassed 10 unassisted tackles, including one QB sack, and added two assists ... Later made such an impression on CBS analyst John Madden in a dramatic, 44-40 Thanksgiving Day victory over Detroit that Madden announced he was naming Harris to his "All-Thanksgiving Day" team ... Timothy's contributions that afternoon, on which he put heavy pressure on Lions quarterback Joe Ferguson, included a quarterback sack and a punt block converted into a Green Bay touchdown when John Simmons made an end zone recovery of the football ... Harris also broke up a Ferguson pass ... PRO: Personable and talented Texan entrenched himself at right inside linebacker in 1988, playing a major role as the Packer defense posted its highest NFL statistical finish in more than a decade ... Despite missing three games because of a quadriceps injury (vs. Buccaneers Sept. 11, vs. Bears Sept. 25 and vs. Buccaneers Oct. 2), the former Texas A. & M. standout tied Co-Captain John Anderson for fourth place on the defensive platoon in solo tackles with 69 while pacing all of his colleagues in assists with an imposing collection of 39 ... PRO: A former pupil of Lindy Infante and receivers coach Buddy Geis at Jacksonville in the "late" USFL, the wiry Pennsylvanian made the most of a second chance under their guidance in 1988 ... Signing on as a free agent, he first battled his way through the pre-season and onto the final 47-man roster, then proceeded to prove so productive he was installed as a late season starter when an injury sidelined Phillip Epps ... He's an intelligent kid ... He's an easy guy to coach, which goes back to his being intelligent ... He listens well. A highly intelligent athlete, he has an impressive grasp of Lindy Infante's offense, reads defenses with admirable facility and is blessed with a strong arm ... DEFENSIVE BACK • WASHINGTON • 10TH YEAR

PRO: Ranks among the most consistent and effective cornerbacks in Packer annals ... A ten-year pro at the most visible — and vulnerable — position on an NFL defense, he has broken up more passes over the past seven seasons — 73 — than any other Green Bay defender ... Blunted nine enemy passes in 1988 to lead Packers' defensive platoon in this important category for the sixth year in the last eight seasons ... Also weighed in with three interceptions, running his career aggregate to 28, the most by an active and lifetime Packer ... Had perhaps his best game of the season against the defending Super Bowl champion

Redskins (Oct. 3), knocking down two passes, making four solo tackles and not permitting Washington's talented receivers a big play all afternoon ... Had another big day in Packers' 18-6 upset of the playoff-bound Vikings Dec. 11, registering 5 solo tackles, making one interception and breaking up one other pass ... Closed out season with 58 solo tackles and 7 assists, forcing 3 fumbles and recovering 2 in the process ... Missed first Vikings game (Oct. 16) because of a groin injury ... A tough and resilient athlete, he broke a hand in final pre-season game of 1987 against Cleveland but still managed to break up two Raider passes in regular season opener a week later ... Had the best statistical year of his career in 1986, forging nine interceptions, only one fewer than league-leader Ronnie Lott of San Francisco, and also just one theft short of tying the Packer single season record of 10, set by Irv Comp in 1943 ... Those nine intercepts were the most by a Packer cornerback since 1978, when Willie Buchanon had the same number ... Lee, who customarily covers the opponents' toughest receiver, made two of those steals against the arch rival Bears at Chicago Nov. 23 of '86 ... Also broke up two other passes on that occasion and recovered a fumble ... Registered 47 solo tackles over the season, along with 11 assists ... Led Green Bay defenses in passes broken up for five consecutive seasons — 1981 through 1985 ... Had a career high 17 passes defensed in 1981 while sharing team interception honors with six ... Again claimed the honor in 1982, a strike-shortened nine-game season, with 8 and in 1983, with seven, then shared laurels with strong safety Mark Murphy in 1984, each being credited with 15 ... Recaptured sole honors in 1985 with 7 ... Has been a starter at left cornerback since opening game of '81 season ... Following '82 season, he triggered a major opportunity for Packers in fourth quarter of the second and final Super Bowl Tournament game vs. Dallas (Jan. 16, 1983), intercepting a Danny White pass and returning it 22 yards for a touchdown which temporarily cut the Cowboys' lead to 30-26 (Dallas subsequently won, 37-26) ... Was Packers' leading punt returner in '81, running one back 94 yards for a TD against Giants at Milwaukee — longest punt return in the NFL that year and second longest in Green Bay's league history ... Has not been employed on kick returns since 1984 ... Underwent surgery in March of 1985 to correct disc problem ... Has excellent (4.4) speed in '40' ... Handicapped in rookie season by hamstring injury suffered in opening day of training camp.

COLLEGE: UPI second team All-America selection as senior ... Ran back three punts for touchdowns same season for Washington's Huskies.

PERSONAL: Given name Mark Anthony Lee ... One of 13 children, he has seven brothers and five sisters ... Married (Lorrie) and father of two Monique (born 10/15/85) and Mark Anthony (born 3/3/87) ... Graduate of Hanford, CA, High School ... Active in fund raisers for Boys & Girls Club ... Part owner and supporter of the Berkeley Academy for Delinquent Girls ... Western movie buff ... His sterling season-long performance drew high praise from Head Coach Lindy Infante, who said, "You'd like to have 47 Mark Murphys and you could go out there and line up and you could play anybody. You'd like to clone him. He's maybe not the most gifted of all the safeties in the league but I doubt seriously if there are any more professional about what they do. He's a

Brent Novoselsky

TIGHT END • PENNSYLVANIA • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-2½ • WT: 242 • BORN: 1/8/66 • (ACQ: FA, '89)

PRO: Addition of the former Chicago Bear has heightened competition at tight end, where holdovers Ed West and Clint Didier also have been joined by former Eagle and Seahawk John Spagnola, among others ... Signed as a free agent during the "Plan B" period, Novoselsky played in eight games for the Bears as a rookie in 1988 ... Made his first pro appearance, poetically enough, against the Packers in Game Four last season (Sept. 25) after being activated when the Bruins' Cap Boso was sidelined by injury ... The former Penn performer later found himself on injured reserve after suffering arm and shoulder hurts against Tampa Bay Nov. 6 ... Reactivated for the regular season finale against the Vikings, he subsequently was on the inactive roster for Chicago's two playoff games ... Waived by the Bears in pre-season, he was re-signed on Sept. 22 following Boso's injury.

COLLEGE: Three-year performer for Quakers ... Earned second team all-Ivy League honors as a senior after 15-catch effort (good for 174 yards) ... Led all Penn receivers in 1986 with 18 catches for 337 yards, winning all-Ivy League first team selection ... Most productive game of his career was 3-touchdown performance against Navy as a junior.

PERSONAL: Given name Brent Howard Novoselsky ... Single, born in Skokie, IL ... Was prep football and baseball star at Niles, IL, North, High School, IL ... Residence: Skokie, IL.

Shawn Patterson - 96

DEFENSIVE END • ARIZONA STATE • 2ND YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 261 • BORN: 4/6/65 • (ACQ: D-2, '88)

PRO: Hustling Arizonian, coming off an impressive rookie season, is the leading candidate to start at right end, a position which came open when veteran Robert Brown was transferred to left end, replacing the departed Alphonso Carreker. The latter joined the Denver Broncos after being left "unprotected" during the NFL's "Plan B" free agency period ... Patterson, originally expected to step in for Carreker, was moved to the right flank to take advantage of his pass rushing skills and Brown to the left side to maximize his strong suit, playing the run ... Head Coach Lindy Infante, counting upon the talented ex-Sun Devil to take a firm grip on the RE position, says of him, "Shawn Patterson certainly should be more at ease in his second year and, hopefully, be more productive — although he had a good year last year. But here, again, it would be time for him now to make a major move, to be a real dominant-type defensive lineman in this league" ... The Packers' second round selection in the 1988 draft (the 35th player chosen), Patterson was quickly pressed into starting service after Carreker was sidelined by a pre-season knee injury ... Started four of the first six games at LE, sitting out Game Two himself because of a leg injury, and played in 15 games overall ... Backed up at both left and right end over the last 10 games of the year and closed out season sharing runnerup honors in QB sacks with Blaise Winter, each collecting five ... Finished with 33 solo tackles overall and also contributed 9 assists ... Supplemented these efforts by forcing one fumble and recovering one ... Also had one assisted tackle in special teams coverage.

THE PLAYERS

COLLEGE: First team All-PAC 10 selection as a senior ... Also named to Football News All-America third team ... Finished second on ASU team with 90 tackles (65 solos), two sacks and 10 tackles for 29 yards in losses ... Named Defensive player of the Year as a senior ... Had his own radio show on a Phoenix area radio station with a state-wide audience while a senior at ASU ... Interested in becoming a professional sports commentator ... Residence: Tempe, AZ.

Ron Pitts - 28

DEFENSIVE BACK	•	UCLA	•	5TH YEAR
HT: 5-10	•	WT: 182	•	BORN: 10/14/62	•	(ACQ: FA, '88)

PRO: Son of a former Packer Super Bowl star, he proved a welcome addition to Green Bay's secondary as an early season free agent acquisition in 1988 ... Signed by the Packers Sept. 15 to fill the void occasioned by the injury loss of Norman Jefferson, the younger Pitts became a valuable contributor — both as a defensive back and a punt returner ... Played in 14 games overall, starting one (vs. Vikings Oct. 16) ... Made nine solo tackles, registered two interceptions, forced two fumbles and recovered three ... First made his presence felt in only his fourth week on the Packer roster, stepping in at left cornerback for an injured Mark Lee against the Patriots at Milwaukee (Oct. 9) and helping trigger a 45-3 Green Bay rout of New England with a pair of interceptions ... His first theft of a Doug Flutie pass came in the second quarter with the Packers leading by a modest 10-3 margin and led to Green Bay's second touchdown, Pitts returning his steal 16 yards to the Patriot 31 to set the stage for a 2-yard Don Majkowski-to-Joey Hackett scoring pass three plays later ... Pitts' second intercept, off Steve Grogan, blunted a Patriot drive which had reached Green Bay's 32-yard-line ... He returned it 25 yards to the New England 43 but Packers failed to capitalize on that occasion ... Started for the sidelined Lee the following week against the Vikings and made an impact, collecting four solo tackles and recovering two fumbles, one after causing it ... Frequently came in on nickel situations with Tiger Greene as season wore on ... Closed out the season as the team's leading punt returner, averaging 10.3 yards for nine runbacks ... One of them, a 63-yard scoring return at Phoenix, Dec. 18, staked the Packers to an early 7-0 lead sparked them to a 26-17 victory in their season finale ... Pitts supplemented his special teams contributions by making three solo tackles on kick coverage ... Originally drafted by the Buffalo Bills in the seventh round of the 1985 draft ... Missed entire rookie season with a foot injury which kept him on injured reserve ... Gained starting assignment in Game 14 of the '87 season and finished year as a starter, making 10 tackles in those final three games ... Had played nickel back and backup roles until that time ... Closed out '87 season with three interceptions ... Also was Bills' No. 1 punt returner, running back 23 punts for 149 yards in '87 ... Played in 22 games for Bills overall and started three.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman and two-year starter at UCLA ... Earned All-Pac 10 Honorable Mention honors as a senior and was named to the conference's All-Academic first team ... Finished with 165 career tackles ... Played in Japan Bowl following senior season and scored a touchdown ... Also played in two Rose Bowl games ... Has degree in communication studies.

PERSONAL: Given name Ronald Dwayne Pitts ... Became the first "second generation" Packer in the team's history when he signed a Green Bay contract ... His father, a 13th round draft choice out of Philander Smith in 1961, helped the Packers win five NFL championships (1961-62 and 65-66-67), scored two touchdowns in their 35-10 victory over Kansas City in Super Bowl I and was named to the Packer Hall of Fame in 1979 ... As a prep, Ron starred at Orchard Park, N.Y., High School, winning high school All-America honors and being named New York State Player of the Year as a senior ... Scored on a 60-yard run on his final carry and had his jersey retired ... Employed as an interview show co-host and production assistant for Los Angeles station KCOP in off-season ... Enjoys surfing and watching and competing in motocross events.

Kirk Roach - 4

PLACEKICKER • WESTERN CAROLINA • 1ST YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 217 • BORN: 11/8/66 • (ACQ: FA, '89)

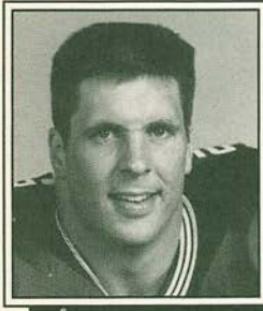

PRO: Ex-Buffalo Bill is regarded as a leading contender for the placekicking assignment, a position shared by four different specialists in 1988 ... Signed as a free agent in the NFL's offseason "Plan B" market, he impressed Packer coaches during May mini-camps ... Special teams coach Howard Tippett says of him, "Kirk has a really strong leg ... I worked him out prior to the draft last year and we had him rated second in the draft behind (Chip) Lohmiller. And he was the second kicker drafted—behind Lohmiller. After he was drafted (in the fifth round) he had a hernia operation in the pre-season and spent the year on injured reserve ... He was basically drafted by Buffalo to beat out (Scott) Norwood. Norwood had such an exceptional year they had to let Roach go ... Potentially, Kirk has a good chance of making our team. As I said he has a strong leg—on his kickoffs, too" ... If the 22-year-old Western Carolina alumnus should become the Packers' resident placekicker when the season opens, he would make Packer history ... He would be the first barefoot kicker ever to perform for the Packers — members of the NFL since 1921 — in a league game ... Regarded as one of the premier kickers in the nation during his college career, which saw him finish his four varsity seasons with 302 points, a total which ranked him among the all-time leaders on the Division 1-AA list.

COLLEGE: Connected on 71 of 101 field goal attempts (70 per cent) and 89 of 90 extra point tries ... His 302 career points and 71 field goals set school and Southern Conference records, the latter total ranking second on the 1-AA all-time list behind Marty Zendejas of Nevada-Reno ... Won first team AP Division 1-AA All-America honors in 1987 ... Also named to All-Southern Conference team all four years ... Despite being hampered all season with a hernia, led the nation with seven kicks of 50 yards or longer as a senior ... Thirty of his 45 kickoffs were not returned ... Hit field goals of 54 and 55 yards in one game against Georgia Southern and 57-yarders against both North Carolina A & T and Appalachian State ... Tied for nation's kick scoring lead as a junior, when he made 24 of 28 FGs and 24 of 25 PAT for 96 points ... Also led the nation in G accuracy (85.7 per cent) ... Ranked as one of WCU's top tacklers on special teams his last two seasons ... Broke several school kicking records held by Dean Biasucci, now the Indianapolis Colts' placekicking specialist ... Marketing major.

Ken Ruettgers - 75
OFFENSIVE TACKLE • S. CALIFORNIA • 5TH YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 280 • BORN: 8/20/62 • (ACQ: D-1, '85)

PRO: A tireless perfectionist with a deep commitment to excellence, Ken Ruettgers has become a fixture in the Packers' offensive line in just four seasons while taking his place among the National Football League's elite at tackle ... No less an authority than Joel Buchsbaum, regarded as one of professional football's leading personnel experts, ranks Ruettgers among the top six offensive tackles in the game ... Because of a shoulder injury, incurred in the Packers' first 1988 pre-season game, last season was not a vintage year for the huge Californian who had to sit out season opener vs. Rams, ending a string of 44 consecutive games ... Charlie Davis, Ruettgers' position coach, explained, "Ken was limited last year by that shoulder injury, but he's expected to return to form this year" ... Davis describes the five-year veteran as "a real sound, consistent, intelligent player ... He's one of the real steady performers in our offensive line" ... Had perhaps his best year in 1987 when he gave up only 3½ quarterback sacks over the 12-game schedule ... The quality of his efforts was underscored when he subsequently was voted Packer "Offensive Player of the Year" by Wisconsin's sports media, an honor which marked the first time a Green Bay offensive lineman had been so honored since center Ken Bowman was similarly recognized in 1971 ... Also was Packer nominee in the Miller Lite Offensive Lineman of the Year competition ... The fact that he had to overcome an attack of mononucleosis during the early weeks of training camp only served to make his season-long performance all the more impressive ... Ruettgers has achieved his high level of competence by spending long hours in the weight room and in exhaustive study of his opponent during and after hours, along with developing a "book" on each defensive end he faces over the course of a season ... The contents include "just what their moves are, what their personality types are from what I can determine on film, what they've done against me, and against other teams ... I take things down" ... His strenuous off-season regimen also has been a major factor in Ruettgers' success ... It includes, among other things, four days of weight-lifting per week, plus racquetball, basketball and karate — as well as hitting the speed bag and jumping rope ... Ken first gained prominence in the 1986 season finale against the New York Giants, then en route to Super Bowl XXI, when he capped his personal year by shutting out league sack champion Lawrence Taylor (Dec. 20), a performance which deprived the New York superstar of an NFL single season record for sacks ... Ruettgers became a Packer by way of a draft day trade with Buffalo in 1985, an exchange which sent Green Bay's first and second choices in that draft to Buffalo for the Bills' first round choice and a fourth round selection in 1986, the latter turning out to be linebacker Timothy Harris ... The seventh player chosen overall, Ruettgers shared time with veteran Karl Swanke for eight of the last nine games of the '85 season, then started the season finale at Tampa after Swanke suffered a knee injury in Game 15 vs. Lions ... Earlier had stepped in as starter at LT in season opener vs. Patriots when Swanke was moved to RT, replacing Greg Koch, who had been pressed into service at right guard following an injury to Ron Hallstrom.

WIDE RECEIVER • GRAMBLING • 3RD YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 170 • BORN: 9/13/64 • (ACQ: D-11, '87)

PRO: Made solid contribution to the Packer passing game in 1988, primarily in Lindy Infante's four-receiver modus operandi... Closed out season with 20 receptions for 275 yards, a 13.8 average, and one touchdown... The latter came at a highly opportune time, helping the Packers end a seven-game losing streak with an 18-6 victory over the Vikings in Green Bay's Lambeau Field... An 11-yard strike from quarterback Don Majkowski, it staked the Packers to a 16-3 lead in the third quarter... Scott also contributed on special teams as a kickoff returner, averaging 17.3 yards on 12 runbacks... An eleventh round draft selection in 1987, he was waived Sept. 7 of that season, then shortly re-signed after the player strike began and became a standout on the replacement team... Started all three games during that period and emerged as the team's No. 2 receiver during that span... Caught 8 passes overall for 79 yards, a 9.9 average... Also employed as a kick returner, he added 103 yards via returns... WIDE RECEIVER • SOUTH CAROLINA • 2ND YEAR

PRO: The fluid South Carolinian, the Packers' No. 1 draft choice in 1988, made a major impact in his baptismal NFL season, proceeding to catch more passes than any other rookie in the team's history ... Closed out with 55 receptions, two more than Bill Howton registered in setting the Packer rookie record in 1952, while emerging as the Packers' leading receiver ... Had his best yardage day (137) with 7 catches against the Bears September 25 and his most productive afternoon from a reception standpoint with 8 catches against the Lions at Milwaukee November 20 which brought him his second 100-yard day of the season

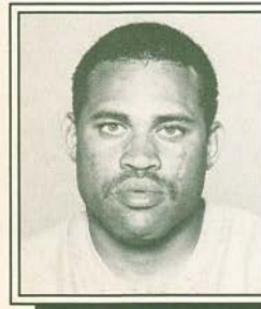

(124) ... Had a 51-yard reception vs. the Bears, the Packers' second longest of the '88 season ... Caught 5 or more passes in six games, including 6 for 70 yards vs. Buccaneers October 2 and 6 for 71 yards vs. Lions in December 4 rematch at Pontiac, MI., Silverdome ... Also made a solid contribution on special teams as a punt returner, averaging 5.3 yards for 9 runbacks ... Coach Lindy Infante, looking for even bigger things from the 24-year-old former Gamecock, says, "Sterling Sharpe had a good, solid year as a rookie but I think his football's still in front of him. I think he can get better than he played in '88; I think he can become more consistent. But I think that one thing he understands now — he's been in the league for a year — he knows what professional football's all about. I think he's going to make an impact on what we're doing in the years to come. And I think he needs to — and wants to be — the impact player that we need ... And I think he will be."

TIGHT END • YALE • 10TH YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 242 • BORN: 8/1/57 • (ACQ: FA, '89)

PRO: Ten-year pro, one of the most prolific receiving tight ends in the game, adds a major dimension to the Packer roster at his position ... Signed as a free agent March 31, 1989 during the "Plan B" period, he enters the '89 season as the fourth ranking receiver among active NFC tight ends with 261 career catches ... Virgil Knight, the Packers' tight ends coach, is confident Spagnola will make a substantial challenge for starting status ... Knight describes the former Eagle and Seahawk as "very intelligent and a good receiver ... He runs good routes and has a good feel for the game, as all of our tight ends do. His experience shows.

He's going to push for that spot. Hopefully, he's got a few good years left" ... Caught five passes for 40 yards and one touchdown in 1988 at Seattle, where he backed up Mike Tice ... Prior to joining the Seahawks, the 32-year-old Pennsylvanian had been a five-year starter for the Eagles, with whom he had signed as a free agent in 1979 after coming out of Yale ... Over his last four seasons with Philadelphia, he averaged 51 receptions per year, his production including a career high 65 catches in 1984 and 64 in 1985 ... Was selected as first alternate for the NFC squad in Pro Bowl balloting in both '84 and '85 ... Also earned first team all-NFC honors in latter year when he set personal career highs in yards (772) and touchdowns (5) ... Had best day of his career at New Orleans on Oct. 6, 1985 when he caught 12 passes (tied for second most in Eagle history) for 124 yards and 2 TDs, all career bests ... His 1984 season was a testimonial to his courage and determination when he made a successful comeback after missing 1983 season due to neck injury (suffered during pre-season weight lifting) that required surgical repair of a cervical disc ... Subsequently was voted Eagles' Most Valuable Player by his teammates and Professional Athlete of the Year by the Philadelphia Chapter of UNICO (an Italian-American service organization) ... Also received Ed Block Memorial Award for courage (named after the longtime former trainer of the Baltimore Colts) ... His 65 catches for 701 yards that season both were highs among NFC tight ends (fifth in the NFL), and were the second most ever by an Eagles TE (behind Pete Retzlaff, who had 66 in 1965) ... Had his best '84 outing vs. Dallas (12/2) with 11 receptions for 114 yards ... Started all nine games in strike-shortened 1982 season and emerged as team's leading receiver (26 catches for 313 yards, 2 TDs) ... Was slowed by hamstring injury in 1981, settling for 6 catches in 11 games ... Started six regular season games in 1980 and Super Bowl XV (in double-TE formation) ... Played in all 16 games as a rookie in 1979 ... Originally New England's ninth round draft choice in '79 but was released late in pre-season and signed immediately as a free agent by Eagles.

COLLEGE: Closed out college career as Yale's all-time leading receiver with 88 receptions (later tied by Curt Grieve) for 1,554 yards ... Earned All-New England, All-ECAC, All-East, All-Ivy and team MVP honors as a senior ... Also named MVP of Blue-Gray Game when he caught 4 passes for 61 yards and 2 TDs.

Served as Eagles' player representative ... Recipient of the "Good Guy" Award from the Philadelphia Sportswriters' Association in 1986 for cooperation with the media, and Merit Award from Continental Bank for community service ... Was Eagles' representative on NFL's United Way television spots in 1984 ... Very active in numerous community projects, including United Way ... Serves on board of directors of the Big Brothers/Big Sisters Association of Philadelphia and as an honorary coach for the Special Olympics ... Walter Stanley - 87

WIDE REC./KICK RET. • MESA (CO.) COL. • 5TH YEAR
HT: 5-9 1/4 • WT: 180 • BORN: 11/5/62 • (ACQ: D-4, '85)

PRO: Flamboyant Walter Stanley, possessor of a highly developed propensity for the big play, easily ranks among the most electrifying performers in recent Packer history ... The supremely confident Chicago native, an athlete of superior and varied talents, has averaged nearly 15 yards for every time he has touched the football since being selected in the fourth round of the NFL's 1985 draft ... Overall has amassed 3,402 all-purpose yards, an average of 14.79 yards per "handle" ... Off to the best start of his pro career in 1988, he saw his season abruptly cut short by a shoulder injury in Game Seven against the Vikings at the Minneapolis Metrodome (Oct. 16) ... He underwent surgery for a separation the following week and was sidelined for the balance of the season ... Had recorded his second 100-yard receiving day of the season in the Minnesota contest (5 catches for 101 yards) before being felled by injury, his production including a 43-yard reception from quarterback Don Majkowski on the Packers' first offensive play of the afternoon ... Was Packers' leading receiver at the time of the injury, with 28 catches for 436 yards (a 15.6 average) ... One of those 28 catches was a 56-yarder (from Majkowski) at Tampa Oct. 2, a collaboration which represented the Packers' longest offensive play of the season ... Finished that day with his first 100-yard effort of the year (6 catches for 107 yards) ... Also employed as a punt returner after a knee injury sidelined Norman Jefferson, he averaged 4.3 yards for 12 punt returns and 19.5 yards for 2 kickoff returns ... Emerged as Green Bay's primary offensive weapon in 1987, leading the team in receptions (38), average yards-per-catch (17.7) and punt returns (6.2 average for 28 runbacks) ... Typically, he engineered the Packers' longest play of the season — a 70-yard scoring maneuver against Lions at Pontiac, MI, Silverdome Oct. 25 which saw him pull in a short pass into the right flat from Majkowski and streak the distance ... Ended the afternoon with 6 receptions for 150 yards (best yardage of his pro career) ... Capped the season with a second 100-yard day in '87 finale at New Orleans (109 yards on 4 receptions, good for 2 TDs) ... The elusive flanker also posted the Packers' longest punt return of the season, a 48-yard effort against the Giants at East

Rutherford, N.J. (Dec. 19), an excursion which set up the Packers' lone TD in a 19-10 loss ... Stanley also registered Green Bay's best rushing ratio, averaging 9.5 yards per attempt (38 yards in 4 carries) ... Had stamped himself as one of pro football's most explosive performers in 1986, when he finished among the NFL's leaders in all-purpose yardage with 1,617 ... Closed out the season among the top ten punt and kickoff returners in the National Football Conference and also emerged with the NFC's highest average per catch as a wide receiver (20.7 yards) after taking over for the injured Phillip Epps as the starting flanker in Game 13 ... Averaged 17.0 yards for every time he handled the football, including 35 receptions for 723 yards, 3 punt returns for 316 yards, a 9.6 average good for fifth place in the NFC, and 55 yards in 28 kickoff returns, a 20.0 average which ranked ninth in the NFC ... Punctuated his punt return heroics with an 83-yard, scoring runback against the Detroit Lions at Pontiac before a national television audience Thanksgiving Day (Nov. 27), which propelled the Packers to a last-minute, come-from-behind, 44-40 victory ... The longest punt return of the year in the NFC, it was the third TD of the afternoon for Stanley, who earlier had collaborated with quarterback Randy Wright for a pair of scores on 21 and 36-yard air strikes ... Walter closed out the afternoon with 124 yards on 4 catches to register the first 100-yard receiving day of his NFL career ... Rolled up the astonishing total of 287 all-purpose yards in that performance, including 113 on two punt returns and 50 on three kickoff returns ... Had not played football in three years at Mesa, CO., College when then Head Coach Forrest Gregg made him Green Bay's fourth selection in the '85 draft, a choice Gregg conceded had been a bit of a "reach" ... Wears Number 87, formerly the property of Willie Davis, a six-time all-pro defensive end for the Packers, who now is enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame ... Had the Packers' best punt and kickoff return averages as a rookie (21.7 yards on 14 PR and 23.8 yards on 9 KOR) ... Also saw limited action at wide receiver and had no receptions.

COLLEGE: Played two years of varsity football at the University of Colorado under Chuck Fairbanks and was redshirted one year before transferring to Mesa College (Grand Junction, CO.), where he did not play football competitively ... Averaged 4.5 yards per rush and 25.8 yards per kickoff return as a freshman, returning both a punt and a kickoff for TDs in one game vs. Oklahoma ... Led CU in kickoff returns as both a freshman and sophomore ... Originally utilized as a running back at Colorado.

PERSONAL: Given name Walter Stanley ... Self-designated nickname: "Mr. Excitement" ... Earlier nicknames: "All-State" and "Quick Six" ... Was highly productive performer at Chicago South Shore High School, rushing for more than 1,600 yards as a senior while winning the Illinois state scoring title with 150 points ... Rushed for 282 yards in one game as a senior, 268 in another as a junior ... Also lettered in basketball and track ... Active in support of the Vince Lombardi, John Elway and Michael Jordan McDonald's charity golf classics, and Boys' Town ... Favorite hobbies and sports: Baseball, skiing, jet skiing, music, dancing, swimming and basketball ... Operates home decorating service in off-season ... Hometown: Chicago ... Residence: Highland Ranch, CO.

Scott Stephen - 54

LINEBACKER • ARIZONA STATE • 3RD YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 232 • BORN: 6/18/64 • (ACQ: D-3b, '87)

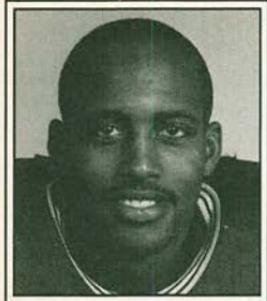

PRO: Packer defensive coaches are hoping this is the year Scott Stephen, a special teams standout in 1988, puts all of his considerable talents together at linebacker ... Hank Bullough, the team's shrewd defensive coordinator, sums up Stephen's situation succinctly: "Scott's got a lot of ability. He knows what he's doing. He's just got to get it down and react" ... Saw limited action from his linebacker position in 1988, his second NFL season ... Registered one solo tackle but it was one for his memory book — a three-yard sack of Tampa Bay quarterback Vinny Testaverde in Game Two against the Buccaneers Sept. 11 ... Also broke up one pass ... Played in all 16 games and was one of Howard Tippett's most productive performers ... Ended the season as the leading member of the kickoff coverage platoon with 13 unassisted tackles — four more than his closest pursuer — and two assists ... Also employed primarily on special teams as a rookie in 1987, he collected four solo tackles on coverage units and two other solo stops while operating at linebacker and appearing in eight non-strike games overall ... Understudy to veteran John Anderson on the strong side the past two seasons, he now is scheduled to back up Timothy Harris on the weak side.

COLLEGE: All-Pac 10 selection as a senior at Arizona State ... Recorded 11 tackles in a 22-15 win over Michigan in the 1987 Rose Bowl ... Chosen to play in Japan and Senior Bowls ... Led Sun Devils in sacks as both a sophomore and junior ... Psychology major.

PERSONAL: Given name Scott DeWitt Stephen ... Single ... Earned all-Central, all-city and All-America honors at Manual Arts (Los Angeles) High School while serving as team captain as a senior ... Caught 54 passes as a receiver on offense and made 67 tackles as a linebacker on defense that '82 season ... Favorite sports and hobbies: Working on high performance vehicles, watching baseball, basketball and boxing ... Hometown: Los Angeles.

FREE SAFETY • WISCONSIN • 5TH YEAR
 HT: 5-10 • WT: 186 • BORN: 9/6/63 • (ACQ: D-8, '85)

PRO: Freewheeling University of Wisconsin product, an aggressive, all-out performer, has been the Packers' nominal free safety since the mid-point of the 1986 season ... Had most productive year of his pro career — from the standpoint of interceptions — in 1988 ... Forged three thefts, tripling his total for his first two seasons, and broke up five other passes ... Supplemented those contributions by forcing three fumbles and recovering two while registering 51 unassisted tackles, including one QB sack ... Also weighed in with 13 assists ... Recovered a fumble in the Packer end zone to halt a Dolphin drive at Miami in Game Three (Sept. 18) ... Led all Packer tacklers against the Bears the following week with 10 solo tackles, including one sack, and forced a fumble ... Later made one of the biggest plays of the Colts game (Nov. 13) when he recovered an onside kickoff to give the Packers a chance to tie the game in the final minute of play ... Credited with two tackles on special teams ... Moved into the starting lineup in the sixth game of the 1986 season at Cleveland (Oct. 19) and proceeded to help key an inspired defensive performance which held the Browns to a modest 32 yards rushing, enabling the Packers to end an 0-6 season start by upending the heavily favored AFC Central Division leaders, 17-14 ... A regular ever since, except for injury-enforced absences, he has started 34 of the 38 games the Packers have played in that span ... Played in 14 games and started 13 last season, sitting out vs. the Vikings at Minneapolis Oct. 16 and the season finale vs. the Cardinals at Phoenix (Dec. 18) with a hamstring injury ... A productive performer in his first full season in that role in 1987, Stills registered 49 solo tackles and 10 assists ... Also broke up five passes while starting 11 of the 12 non-strike games (missed Vikings game Dec. 13 because of a back problem) ... Finished second on the defensive platoon in tackles in 1986 with 63 despite not becoming a starter until the seventh game of the season ... He also contributed 19 assists, forced one fumble and made one interception — his first as a pro ... He returned that maiden theft 58 yards for a touchdown in the season finale against the eventual Super Bowl champion Giants to record his first NFL score ... An eighth round draft choice in 1985, the former Badger saw his rookie season take a surprising and storybook twist ... After making a strong bid for a berth on the final, 45-man roster, he was reluctantly released by the Packer coaching staff in the last cutdown for the regular season ... Back home in Oceanside, CA., he was sent a hasty S.O.S. two months later when injury problems struck the Packer secondary five days before a Nov. 3 rematch with the Chicago Bears in Green Bay ... Stills proceeded to make an instant impact, particularly upon Bear fullback Matt Suhey, felled by a thunderous, "delayed" hit which brought the yearling defender and the Packers a 15-yard assessment ... A defensive standout overall, he finished the day with 5 solo tackles and one assist ... It was his only start of the season, as it turned out, but Stills went on to become a major contributor on special teams the balance of the season, making six solo stops and adding a pair of assists.

COLLEGE: Played cornerback opposite Richard Johnson (a first round selection in the '85 draft) at Wisconsin ... Collected five interceptions and broke up six other passes as a senior ... Transferred to Wisconsin from El Camino, CA., College, where he played defensive back ... Communications major.

PERSONAL: Given name Kenneth Lee Stills ... Single ... Has become a popular member of the Packers' off-season speakers' bureau ... Favorite hobbies and non-football interests: Skiing, golf ... Attended El Camino, CA., High School, where he was both a wide receiver and defensive back for the football team ... Also participated in track and basketball ... Works for a decking company in the offseason ... Hometown: Oceanside, CA.

Was credited with one assisted tackle on special teams coverage in the process ... Former Fresno State athlete had seen his 1987 season telescoped to one game by the football fates ... Had come within inches of making the regular season roster as a rookie free agent, then returned to make history of sorts by scoring the Packers' first touchdown of the replacement period (vs. Vikings at Minneapolis Oct. 4), before suffering a season-ending knee injury before that contest had ended ... Registered ed his history-making TD on a 30-yard pass-run collaboration with quarterback Alan Risher, staking the Packers to an early lead en route to a 23-16 victory ... Had run the football effectively (19 yards on 5 attempts) before incurring the injury, a hyperextension of a knee ... Keith Uecker - 70

OFFENSIVE TACKLE • AUBURN • 7TH YEAR
 HT: 6-5 • WT: 284 • BORN: 6/29/60 • (ACQ: W-Den., '84)

PRO: The 1988 season was a watershed year for Keith Uecker, one of the most talented and determined athletes in Packer annals ... An indomitable performer who has had to overcome a host of injury problems during his seven-year career, the veteran offensive tackle reached a personal milestone last season when he started every one of Green Bay's 16 games ... In four previous seasons with the Packers, he only twice had managed to play in as many as eight games (in 1985 and '87), and in 1986 had spent the season on injured reserve ... Little wonder that Charlie Davis, the Packers' offensive line coach, calls

Uecker "a real tough, gritty kind of a guy — a 100 per cent worker type of a guy." True grit, Davis also will tell you, is not Uecker's only asset. "Keith also is very intelligent, with good strength and good techniques," says his position coach, adding in admiration, "He's one of the real tough guys — rugged" ... Uecker has needed to be "rugged" to survive the physical problems he has encountered along the way ... During the 1985 season alone, he underwent five surgeries on his left knee and while rehabilitating the knee after the first operation, decided it would be an opportune time to have repair of his achilles tendon, which had hampered him throughout his career ... Just moments before that surgery, doctors decided to x-ray his lung area because he complained of pain and soreness. Pericarditis, a serious heart condition which could have caused major health problems for Uecker if he had been placed under anesthesia, was detected. Later, after several weeks of total inactivity following the achilles surgery, he discovered he was unable to extend his surgical knee without excruciating pain. More surgery was required and four subsequent operations sidelined him for the 1986 season ... Not easily turned aside, he returned for the 1987 training camp and regained starting status, finally realizing the goal of all those rehabilitation efforts. "It's as much a dream as a job," he explained. "It's hard to let a dream go" ... In recognition of his latest comeback, Uecker was honored as Green Bay's 1987 selection for the Ed Block Courage Award, which salutes one player from each of the 28 NFL teams for exemplifying courage as seen through the eyes of teammates ... Ironically, that "comeback" season did not pass without further injury ... Uecker started two pre-strike games and final replacement contest, then stretched the medial collateral ligament in his right knee in the first post-strike game (vs. the Lions Oct. 25, 1987) and sat out the next five games ... He returned to the starting lineup against the 49ers Dec. 6 to revitalize a sagging ground game and upgrade the right side of the offensive line for the last four weeks of the season ... Before his injury problems began to surface, the imposing Auburn alumnus started the first seven games of the 1985 season before undergoing knee surgery and giving way to then rookie Rich Moran ... Became a Packer on October 23, 1984, when acquired on waivers from Denver ... He appeared in the last five games of the '84 season, starting two at left guard for Tim Huffman, who had been temporarily moved to tackle to replace the injured Karl Swaney ... A ninth round draft choice of the Broncos in 1982, Uecker started two games for Denver as a rookie and played in all 16 games in 1983, being frequently employed in short yardage and goal line situations ... Was handicapped by a foot injury in 1984 before being waived off injured reserve by Broncos with hope of reactivating him in their offensive line, a point at which he was claimed by the Packers.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter and letterman at Auburn, earning all-SEC honors in 1981 ... Closed out his college career with appearances in the East-West and Blue-Gray games ... Named Tigers' outstanding lineman in 1980 as tackle, then moved to guard for senior, '81 season ... Team captain as senior ... Accounting major.

PERSONAL: Given name Richard Keith Uecker ... Married (Juliana Pier) in April, 1988 ... Earned nine letters at Hollywood Hills, FL, High School, three each in football, baseball and basketball ... Has undertaken Tai-Kwon-Do lessons during his pro career to improve his mobility and footwork ... Has skied in NFL Pro-Celebrity competition for handicapped children ... Also has taken part in Rulon Jones Pro-Am Ski Tournament and played in the John Elway Pro-Am Golf Tournament ... Favorite sports and hobbies: Golf, hunting, fishing.

PRO STATISTICS: Games/Starts: Denver — 1982 (5-2); 1983 (16-0); Green Bay — 1984 (5-2); 1985 (8-7); 1986 (0-0, spent season on injured reserve); 1987 (8-0); 1988 (16-16).

PRO: Versatile, all-out hustler became an important member of Green Bay's defensive line following his acquisition from the San Diego Chargers in an off-season trade ... Not only played in all 16 games but started eight — at two different positions — making one start at left end and seven others at nose tackle ... In the process, he registered 5 quarterback sacks to tie Shawn Patterson for team runnerup honors ... Collecting 28 solo tackles overall, adding eight assists and pacing the defensive platoon's down linemen in pass deflections with six ... Also forced one fumble and recovered two ... Started at "nose" a second time in Game Four against the Bears, gave way to Bob Nelson a week later because of a neck injury, then returned to the position to start five more games in succession before again being replaced by Nelson ... Greg Blache, the Packers' defensive line coach, openly admires Winter's dedicated approach to his profession ... "Blaise is a good student of the game and very intense and enthusiastic," Blache said. "It's just a pleasure for me to work with him ... He can play the defensive end position or the nose tackle — and does a real good job at either position ... Blaise just works his fanny off" ... Keith Woodside - 33

RUNNING BACK • TEXAS A. & M. • 2ND YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 213 • BORN: 7/29/64 • (ACQ: D-3, '88)

PRO: Multi-talented Louisianian enters his second NFL season as the incumbent at halfback in Lindy Infante's offense ... Stepped in as the starter at the "H-back" position in Game Eight last season as a rookie after Kenneth Davis (now a Buffalo Bill) was sidelined by an ankle injury ... Closed out the year as the Packers' No. 3 rusher and receiver, proving more effective in the latter role ... Gained 195 yards rushing in 83 attempts, a 2.3 average, and caught 39 passes for 352 yards, a 9.0 average ... Also emerged as team's third-ranking scorer with five touchdowns — three rushing and two receiving — and 30 points ...

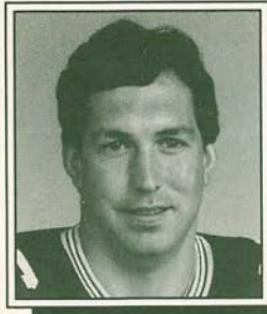

Willie Peete, Woodside's position coach, is expecting even bigger things from him in 1989. Noting that Woodside has added 10 pounds in the off-season in an effort to improve his durability and increase his success at running inside, Peete said, "Keith is stronger and a little more physical (than he was as a rookie). You can tell he's really worked in the off-season" ... Ideally suited to Lindy Infante's multiple-type offense — an athlete who can come out of the backfield, catch the football and, as Infante puts it, "can go out there and play in space" ... Also has the size to be an effective blocker, another requirement of the "H-back" ... Had his best rushing day in '88 against the Vikings Oct. 16 — the day Davis was injured and sidelined for the season ... He rushed for 54 yards in 18 attempts and scores his first pro touchdown on a 6-yard run in the process ... Also caught two passes for 41 additional yards ... Drew his first NFL start the following week against the defending world champion Washington Redskins and the most of the opportunity ... He led the Packers in both rushing (34 yards in 10 attempts) and receiving (4 catches for 78 yards) ... Later tied Sterling Sharpe for the most receptions in one game for the '88 season with eight catches against Detroit (Nov. 20) good for 59 yards ... Also employed as a kickoff returner, he averaged 18.1 yards for 19 runbacks, with a long of 29 yards.

COLLEGE: Had 109 career receptions at Texas A. & M. to break the Southwest Conference record (107 by former Packer Donny Anderson of Texas Tech) ... Also set an SWC record for receptions by a running back as a senior with 12 for 95 yards vs. Arkansas ... All-SWC selection by UPI ... Industrial education major.

PERSONAL: Given name Keith A. Woodside ... Single ... All-state running back at Vidalia (LA) High School ... Led the state's runners with 2,000 yards rushing in 9 games his senior year ... Gained 173 yards in the Texas Riverside Bowl vs. the Mississippi All-Star team ... Born in Natchez, MS ... Hometown: Vidalia, LA.

Randy Wright - 16

QUARTERBACK • WISCONSIN • 6TH YEAR
 HT: 6-2 • WT: 203 • BORN: 1/12/61 • (ACQ: D-6, '84)

PRO: Although injuries reduced his season to eight games in 1988, Randy Wright further entrenched himself in the Packer record book along the way, moving past the legendary Arnie Herber into fourth place on Green Bay's all-time career passing yardage list ... Throwing for 1,490 yards, he swelled his lifetime total to 7,106 to surpass Herber (1932-40), who moved to fifth with 6,741 ... Wright now trails only Bart Starr (23,718), Lynn Dickey (21,369) and Tobin Rote (11,535) on the Packers' lifetime list ... The former University of Wisconsin field general registered the second 300-yard passing performance of his career in the process, amassing 321 yards vs. the Buccaneers at Tampa Oct. 2 (28 completions in 51 attempts) ... Had compiled the highest single game percentage of his career, 81.5 in earlier start vs. Bucs (Sept. 11), completing 22 of 27 attempts for 181 yards and one TD, with no interceptions ... His 52 pass attempts vs. the Lions Dec. 4 also represented the second highest single game total in Packer history, falling only two short of his own club record, 54, established vs. the 49ers at Milwaukee Oct. 26, 1986 ... His 51 attempts vs. Buccaneers in the Oct. 2 contest now rank as third highest total in Green Bay's annals ... The highly cerebral Texan's injury problems began that afternoon when he incurred a severe groin muscle pull on the next to last play of the game ... Sidelined for four weeks, he returned to make a brief appearance against Atlanta November 6 and aggravated the groin problem ... Out for an additional three weeks, he again returned to action, starting against the Lions Dec. 4 and the Vikings Dec. 11 before suffering a recurrence of the groin injury late in the first half vs. Minnesota, a development which ended his season ... Started seven games overall in 1987, including four in succession ... Had his best day vs. Bears in Green Bay Nov. 8, completing 20 of 41 passes for 298 yards and 2 touchdowns in a memorable duel with the Bruins' Jim McMahon ... Climaxed that effort by maneuvering the Packers into scoring position for a 47-yard Al Del Greco field goal which lifted them into a 24-23 lead with one minute remaining, a heroic which was shortly negated by a 52-yard, game-winning FG by the Bears' Kevin Butler ... Also had highly productive afternoon in rematch with Bears at Chicago, connecting on 18 of 36 attempts for 255 yards ... Was installed as the Packers' starting quarterback in 1986 following the release of veteran Lynn Dickey, and responded to the assignment by compiling the third highest single season totals in Packer history for completions (263) and passing yards (3,247) ... Only Dickey, in Green Bay's history, has completed more passes for more yards in a single season ... Wright, subsequently voted Packer Most Valuable Offensive Player honors, set two club records en route — for most passes attempted in a game, 54, vs. 49ers Oct. 26 and for most pass attempts in a season (492), surpassing Dickey's previous mark of 484, set in 1983 ... In addition, Wright's 17 touchdown passes matched the fifth highest single season total in Packer history and his 30 completions vs. the 49ers also tied the second highest single game total in Green Bay's history ... His 30 completions resulted in the first 300-yard passing day of Wright's pro career (328) ... A sixth round draft choice in 1984, Wright made two starts prior to 1986—the first against the Bears at Chicago Dec. 9, 1984, and the second against the Cardinals at St. Louis Sept. 29, 1985 ... Suffered knee injury in second quarter of that Bear contest and underwent knee surgery the following day ... Threw a TD pass in his first regular season appearance as a professional earlier in that season (Sept. 9), a game in which he replaced Dickey when the latter was injured on the first offensive series ... Became first player Packers had drafted from University of Wisconsin in 20 years (since center Ken Bowman was made Green Bay's eighth round selection in 1964) when he was selected in round six.

COLLEGE: Escorted Wisconsin's Badgers to 12 Big Ten offensive records as a senior, also establishing seven conference individual passing marks ... Closed out career as seventh ranking passer in Big Ten history on yardage basis (5,048) ... Earned MVP honors in Blue-Gray game following senior season ... Transferred to Wisconsin from Notre Dame ... Has degree in communications.

PERSONAL: Given name Randall Steven Wright ... Married (Kelli) and father of daughter Katelyn (born 3/19/88) ... Honorable mention All-America prep star at St. Charles, IL, High School ... Also competed in basketball and track ... Born in Austin, TX, and lived there until age 16 ... Favorite hobbies and pastimes: Piano playing, golf, movies ... Residence: Madison, WI.

THE DRAFTEES

The following players were selected by the Packers in the 1989 National Football League draft. The players appear in the order of their selection.

TONY MANDARICH • 23 • OT • Michigan State
Ht: 6-5 • Wt: 315 • Born: Sept. 23, 1966 • D-1

A premier prospect regarded by many to have been the nation's top offensive lineman in 1988 ... The possessor of incredible strength, his athletic achievements border upon the spectacular ... Though a massive 315 pounds, he has run the 40-yard dash in 4.65 seconds ... He also has bench-pressed 545 pounds, made a 30-inch vertical leap and engineered a 10-foot-3-inch standing broad jump ... Mandarich's college coach, George Perles of Michigan State, labels him "the finest offensive lineman I've ever been associated with" ... A dedicated and intense competitor with a "mean streak," he enjoys the physical contact in the trenches ... Had at least 10 knockdown blocks — what Michigan State statisticians term "pancakes" — in eight of nine games he played in last season ... A unanimous first team All-America and All-Big Ten Conference selection, he was named 'College Lineman of the Year' by the Washington (D.C.) and Columbus (OH.) Touchdown Clubs ... Paced a strong Spartan ground attack which averaged over 246 yards per game with Tony in the lineup ... After missing the first three games of the '88 season, he returned to action with 10 knockdown blocks, then added 13 more the following week in a 36-3 thumping of Northwestern, leading the way as MSU rushed for 352 yards ... Followed with 12 more "pancakes" in his third game, a 28-21 win over Illinois, and then was credited with a season high 17 knockdown blocks as the Spartans rolled up 372 rushing yards and a grand total of 455 in a 48-3 rout of Purdue ... Later put on a spectacular display of his passblocking capabilities, leveling linebackers Aaron Chubb and Terrie Webster with a sensational block, allowing Bobby McAllister the time to find receiver Andre Rison for a 55-yard touchdown strike against Georgia in the Gator Bowl.

As a junior, Mandarich was named to the College & Pro Football Newsweekly and Football News first team All-Americans and also was the winner of the team's Gerald R. Ford Up-Front Award for the second straight year ... Also was named Big Ten Conference Lineman of the Year after registering at least 15 knockdown blocks in five games ... Opened that season with an outstanding performance on national television ... Called on to handle All-American linebacker Marcus Cotton, Tony dominated the talented Trojan, holding him to only an assisted tackle and constantly knocking Cotton off his feet, powering the blocking upfront as the Spartans rushed for 238 yards and 3 touchdowns ... Later was credited with 18 knockdown blocks as MSU rushed for 362 yards in a 36-0 shutout of Northwestern ... Climaxed the season by leveling linebacker Marcus Cotton with a thunderous block as quarterback Bobby McAllister hit Andre Rison with a 36-yard pass to set up John Langeloh's game-winning 36-yard field goal with 4:16 left in a 20-17 decision over USC in the Rose Bowl ... Moved into the starting lineup at left tackle as a sophomore in 1986, earning All-Big Ten Conference honorable mention and winning the team's Gerald R. Ford Up-Front Award for the first time ... Was accorded first team Freshman All-America honors from the Football News in 1985, sharing MSU's Outstanding Underclass Lineman Award honors with Shane Bullough ... Also was named squad's Most Outstanding Defensive Player in the annual Green & White Game in a trial at defensive end in spring drills after the season.

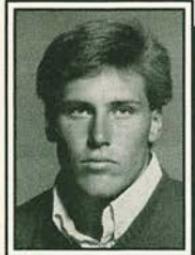

HIGH SCHOOL: Won all-league and all-metro honors at offensive guard at Kent OH., High School while living with his older brother, John, who played for Kent State.

PERSONAL: Telecommunications major. Transplanted Canadian, coming to the United States in his senior year of high school ... Has added over 45 pounds to his frame with a training program that includes seven meals a day and 11,000—15,000 calories ... Older brother, John, plays nose tackle for the Edmonton Eskimos in the Canadian Football League.

THE DRAFTEES

MATT BROCK • 23 • DE • Oregon
Ht.: 6-4½ • Wt.: 267 • Born: January 14, 1966 • D-3(a)

Tom Braatz, the Packers' executive vice president of football operations, says of Brock, the latest in a long line of standout defensive linemen to wear an Oregon uniform, "He's smart and he plays every down ... He hasn't developed his upper body yet, but when he does, he'll be a massive human being" ... Two of Brock's predecessors with the Ducks are currently prominent in the National Football League — George Martin with the Giants and Jeff Stover with the Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers ... One of the premier pass rushers in the West last season, he forged eight quarterback sacks, closing out his collegiate career with 19 ... Also performed well at right defensive tackle in the Hula Bowl following the '88 season ... Favorably compared to Shawn Patterson, the Packers' No. 2 selection in last year's draft, who is expected to start at right end in the defensive line this season ... Jon Jelacic, a Packer scout who has followed Brock during his college career, describes him as "thicker and stronger through the legs, and a little stouter guy (than Patterson)" ... Packer defensive line coach Greg Blache, the man who will be coaching the newcomer, labels Brock as "more of a slugger-type guy (than Patterson). He's better at holding the point of attack, but doesn't have the athletic ability Patterson has" ... Combines speed, strength and field savvy to dominate his opponent in one-on-one situations ... Has completely recovered from back problems that bothered him earlier in his career ... Avid weight-lifter with impressive arm power and very mobile for his size ... Was first team All-Pac 10 Conference selection as a senior ... Registered 81 tackles overall, including 65 solos, his collection including 10 tackles for 54 yards in losses ... Also caused two fumbles, recovered another and deflected two passes while starting every game at left defensive end ... Had a season-high 12 tackles against Colorado, two of them for 9 yards in losses, plus one sack. He also caused a fumble ... Posted 68 tackles as a junior, including 56 unassisted stops, six sacks and 9 tackles for 58 yards in losses ... Experienced every lineman's dream as a sophomore when he recovered a fumble by running back Nick Obrastoff of Washington State in the WSU end zone for a touchdown in a 27-17 win ... Moved into the starting lineup at left end the second week of the 1985 season, his first as a member of the varsity ... Was redshirted as a freshman in 1984.

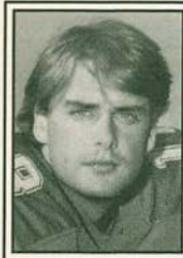

HIGH SCHOOL: Two-time All-Western League middle linebacker and second team All-San Diego Section Choice as a senior at University City, CA., High School ... Caught 10 passes for 192 yards and a pair of touchdowns as a tight end and was credited with 115 tackles (78 solos), two interceptions, three fumble recoveries and a blocked kick his final season ... Also was the starting center on the school's basketball team, averaging double figures in scoring and rebounding.

PERSONAL: Leisure studies and services major.

STAN SHIVER • 23 • SS • Florida State
Ht: 6-2 • Wt: 209 • Born: May 18, 1966 • D-12

Easily one of the most imposing safeties extant at 6-2 and 209 pounds, the big Georgian was a four-year starter at Florida State, where he earned substantial reputation as a hitter Dave Hanner, veteran Packer scout, says of him, "He's a tough, hard-nosed kid. He's very intense. He'll do a heck of a job on specials teams. He'll tackle you, hit you" Played in same secondary with Deion Sanders, fifth player chosen in this year's draft, and tied Sanders for team interception honors as a junior with four ... Had most productive season as a sophomore when he registered 72 tackles (42 solos) in addition to making those four thefts ... Has run 4.69 in '80' ... Received honorable mention all-America recognition from Associated Press following '88 season, which saw him record 25 solo tackles, three sacks, five deflected passes and two interceptions ... As a junior, blocked a punt against Texas Tech that was recovered in the end zone for a touchdown ... Named to Football News Freshman All-America team in 1985, a season in which he made 54 tackles, six of them for losses, deflected seven passes, made two interceptions, recovered a fumble and recorded a sack ... Also turned in a strong Gator Bowl performance, making seven tackles, one behind the line of scrimmage ... Was red-shirted in 1984.

PERSONAL: Social Science major ... Resided in Tallahassee, FL, for 12 years before moving to Georgia as a teenager ... Hails from an athletic family (one brother played football at Tennessee-Chattanooga and another pitched for Georgia Tech).

The Lambeau Field Story

Green Bay's Lambeau Field, home of the Packers, was erected in 1957 with a capacity of 32,150. Five subsequent additions have been made to the facility in the 32-year interim, increasing the current capacity to 57,063. The most recent expansion, in 1985, involved the construction of 72 private boxes, 44 of them from goal line to goal line on the east side and 28 on the west side, extending from either end of the press box to the goal line.

The cost of the original project, when the stadium was constructed in 1957, was $960,000. It was shared equally by the Green Bay Packers, Inc., and the City of Green Bay. Financed by means of a bond issue, it received voter approval in a referendum conducted April 3, 1956. All subsequent additions have been underwritten by the Packer Corporation. They previously increased stadium capacity to 38,669 in 1961, 42,327 in 1963, 50,861 in 1965 and to 56,155 in 1970.

The stadium was dedicated as City Stadium on September 29, 1957. It later was renamed Lambeau Field in 1965, following the death of the late E. L. "Curly" Lambeau, founder and first coach of the Packers.

Lambeau Field now is wholly owned by the City of Green Bay, retirement of the original $960,000 indebtedness having been celebrated at a mortgage-burning ceremony in May of 1978.

1988 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Sept. 11 Packers fall to Tampa Bay 13-10 on last play field goal by Buccaneers' Donald Igwebuikie after a 43-yard Max Zendejas FG earlier in fourth quarter is expunged by a delay-of-game penalty on Green Bay.

Oct. 2 Packers roll up 426 yards (to Buccaneers' 368) but Igwebuikie reprises earlier effort in Green Bay's visit to Tampa Stadium, kicking 44-yard field goal with 35 seconds remaining to provide Bucs' margin in 27-24 victory. Walter Stanley is standout in losing cause with 6 receptions for 107 yards, including a 56-yard strike from Don Majkowski.

Oct. 9 Erupting for 17 points in the second quarter and 21 more in the fourth, the Packers put explosive end to five-game losing streak with a 45-3 rout of the New England Patriots at Milwaukee, forging their largest victory margin in more than 20 years in the process. Don Majkowski, making his 1988 bow as the starting quarterback, completes 18 of 26 passes for 210 yards and one touchdown and Brent Fullwood registers first 100-yard rushing day of his pro career (118 yards in 14 attempts), and scores three TDs. Packer defense short circuits New England attack with five interceptions — two by Ron Pitts and one each by Mark Murphy, Chuck Cecil and Ken Stills — the most in one game for Green Bay since November 29, 1981.

Oct. 16 Packers score second straight victory, smothering Minnesota's playoff-bound Vikings in their Minneapolis Metrodome home, 34-14. Don Majkowski and Tim Harris lead the way, Majkowski completing 19 of 32 passes for 243 yards and Harris blocking a Bucky Scribner punt and returning it 10 yards for a touchdown and tackling Viking quarterback Wade Wilson in the end zone for a safety. Rookie Keith Woodside contributes 85 yards to the Packer offense (54 on 18 rushes and 41 on two pass receptions) and Walter Stanley snares 5 passes for 101 yards.

Oct. 23 Overtime and a possible upset of the defending world champion Washington Redskins eludes the Packers at County Stadium when Max Zendejas' 24-yard field goal attempt is wide left with 14 seconds left to play. Redskins survive, 20-17. Zendejas earlier had missed a 46-yard FG attempt, as did his Redskins counterpart, Chip Lohmiller, from the same distance.

Dec. 11 Packers end 7-game losing streak and complete season sweep of Vikings with 18-6 victory in Green Bay home finale, holding Minnesota's high-powered offense to its lowest point total of the season in the process. Green Bay moves out front in first quarter, Keith Woodside scoring on a 2-yard run to cap an 8-play, 52-yard drive, and leads all the way. Packers add a 20-yard Dean Dorsey field goal in the second quarter and score again in the third quarter on an 11-yard TD pass from Don Majkowski to Patrick Scott. Tim Harris provides the Green and Gold's final points by tackling Minnesota's Wade Wilson in the end zone in the fourth quarter. Larry Mason leads revived ground game with 65 yards in 15 attempts. Randy Wright is starting quarterback but pulls groin muscle late in second quarter and gives way to Majkowski in second half.

Dec. 18 A 13-point first quarter propels Packers to 26-17 victory over Cardinals in season finale at Phoenix. Ron Pitts triggers winning process with 63-yard scoring punt return. Miss of conversion attempt by Curtis Burrow spawns concern but Woodside shortly eases Packer minds with 3-yard scoring run. Green Bay falls behind in the second quarter, 17-13, but Majkowski's 10-yard TD pass to Larry Mason regains lead for good. Majkowski also hits Clint Didier from 2 yards out for an "insurance" score in third period. Overall, Majkowski connects on 18 of 36 passing attempts for 255 yards and 2 TDs and adds 27 yards in 6 rushing attempts. Mason emerges as Packers' leading rusher for second week in row with 57 yards in 18 attempts.

PACKERS STILL OWN A SHARE OF

HIGHEST SCORING 'MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL' GAME

The Packers still own a share—the winning share—of the highest scoring game in the history of "Monday Night Football," ABC-TV's 18-year-old prime time series. On October 17, 1983, they delighted a Lambeau Field house of 52,555 fans by edging the Washington Redskins in an explosive struggle, 48-47.

The Packers eventually prevailed over the Redskins—reigning Super Bowl champions then as they are in 1988—by way of a Jan Stenerud field goal. The scoring orgy produced 11 touchdowns, 11 conversions and 5 other field goals, Stenerud's 20-yard success with only 54 seconds remaining deciding the issue. The Redskins' Mark Moseley added a final, dramatic flourish by missing a 39-yard field goal attempt on the game's last play.

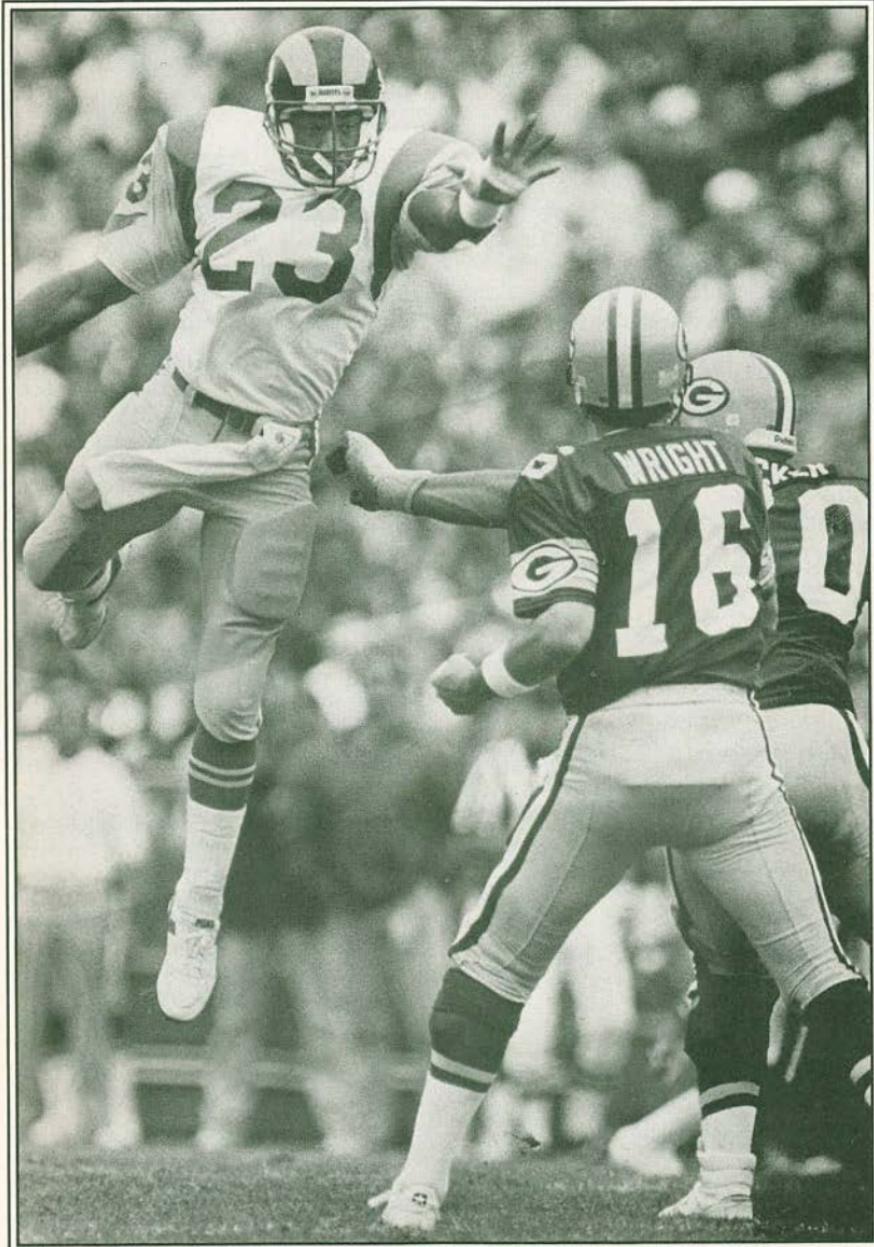

The 95-point production surpassed the previous "Monday Night Football" record for total points by 11. The latter had been established Dec. 20, 1982, when the San Diego Chargers outscored the Cincinnati Bengals, 50-34.

The contest also was the highest scoring game in which the Packers ever have been involved. The 95 points exceeded by eight the previous mark of 87, set when Green Bay lost to the Lions at Detroit in 1951, 52-35.

The Packer record on "Monday Night Football":

1970 — Packers 22, Chargers 20 (at San Diego, Oct. 12)
1970 — Colts 13, Packers 10 (at Milwaukee, Nov. 9)
1971 — Packers 14, Lions 14 (at Milwaukee, Nov. 1)
1971 — Falcons 28, Packers 21 (at Atlanta, Nov. 22)
1972 — Packers 24, Lions 23 (at Detroit, Oct. 16)
1973 — Packers 23, Jets 7 (at Milwaukee, Sept. 17)
1973 — Forty Niners 20, Packers 6 (at San Francisco, Nov. 26)
1974 — Bears 10, Packers 9 (at Chicago, Oct. 21)
1975 — Broncos 23, Packers 13 (at Denver, Sept. 29)
1977 — Redskins 10, Packers 9 (at Washington, Nov. 21)
1979 — Packers 27, Patriots 14 (at Green Bay, Oct. 1)
1982 — Packers 27, New York Giants 19 (at East Rutherford, N.J., Sept. 20)
1983 — Giants 27, Packers 3 (at East Rutherford, N.J., Sept. 26)
1983 — Packers 48, Redskins 47 (at Green Bay, Oct. 17)
1983 — Packers 12, Buccaneers 9 (OT) (at Tampa Bay, Dec. 12)
1984 — Broncos 17, Packers 14 (at Denver, Oct. 15)
1985 — Bears 23, Packers 7 (at Chicago, Oct. 21)
1986 — Bears 25, Packers 12 (Sept. 22)

PACKER SUPER BOWL STORY

Super Bowl I

January 15, 1967

Memorial Coliseum, Los Angeles, Calif.

Paid Attendance: 61,946

Green Bay 35, Kansas City 10

The Packers launched the Super Bowl series by whipping Kansas City's American Football League champions 35-10 behind the passing of Bart Starr, the receiving of Max McGee and a key interception by all-pro safety Willie Wood.

Vince Lombardi's repeating NFL champions broke open the game with three second-half touchdowns, the first of which was set up by Wood's 50-yard return of an interception to the Chief's 5-yard line with the Packers leading by only 14-10. The pass, authored by the Chiefs' Len Dawson, had been intended for Kansas City tight end Fred Arbanas.

McGee, filling in for ailing Boyd Dowler (injured on the Packers, first offensive series) after having caught only three passes all season, snared seven from Starr for 138 yards and two touchdowns. Elijah Pitts ran for two other scores counting one on a 5-yard run in the third quarter and the other on a one-yard bolt in the final period.

The Chiefs' 10 points came in the second quarter; the only touchdown on a seven-yard pass from Dawson to Curtis McClinton.

Starr completed 16 of 23 passes for 250 yards and 2 touchdowns and was chosen the game's most valuable player. His scoring strikes came on a 37-yard collaboration with McGee in the first quarter and a 13-yard pitch to the aging end in the decisive third period.

The Packers collected $15,000 per man and the Chiefs $7,500 apiece — the largest single-game shares in the history of team sports.

Super Bowl II

January 14, 1968

Orange Bowl, Miami, Florida

Paid Attendance: 75,564

Green Bay 33, Oakland 14

Having acquired a third consecutive NFL championship just two weeks earlier, the Packers embellished that record-tying parlay by winning the Super Bowl title for the second straight year. This time, they dispatched the AFL champion Raiders, 33-14, in a game that drew the first $3 million gate in football history.

Bart Starr again was chosen the game's most valuable player as he completed 13 of 24 passes for 202 yards and one touchdown and directed a Packer attack that was in control all the way after building up a 16-7 halftime lead.

Don Chandler kicked four field goals (39, 20, 43 and 31 yards), and all-pro cornerback Herb Adderley highlighted the Green Bay scoring with a 60-yard interception return of a Daryle Lamonica pass.

After leading by only 3-0 at the quarter, the Packers padded their margin to 16-7 at halftime by way of three Chandler field goals and a 62-yard scoring pass from Starr to split end Boyd Dowler. They then left the Raiders behind with a 10-point third period, Donny Anderson scoring on a 2-yard run and Chandler with his final field goal.

The game marked the last for Vince Lombardi as Packers coach, ending nine years at Green Bay in which he won six Western Conference championships, five NFL titles and two Super Bowls, a record unprecedeted in pro football history.

ELEVEN TIMES WORLD CHAMPIONS

The Green Bay Packers have won more championships — eleven — than any other team in National Football League history. They won their first three by league standing (1929, 1930 and 1931) and eight since the NFL's playoff system was established in 1933 (1936, 1939, 1944, 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967). Green Bay also is the only NFL team to win three straight titles, having done it twice (1929-30-31 and 1965-66-67).

In addition, the Packers won the first two Super Bowls (over Kansas City in 1967, 35-10, and over Oakland in 1968, 33-14).

Chicago's Bears rank second with nine NFL titles, followed by the Giants, Lions and Browns with four each.

GAME BY GAME

1936 — GREEN BAY 21, BOSTON REDSKINS 6, (Polo Grounds, New York) — Although New York was not represented in the title playoff, the game was played in the Polo Grounds because the Redskins' franchise was being shifted to Washington, D.C., by George Marshall. A turnout of 29,545 saw Don Hutson take a 45-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber in the first three minutes, and the Packers were never headed.

1938 — NEW YORK 23, GREEN BAY 17, (Polo Grounds, New York) — The Packers overcame an early 9-0 New York lead, spawned by two blocked punts, but could not hold off the Giants in the second half. The Packers began to close in early in the second period, Arnie Herber capitalizing on a Paul (Tiny) Engebretsen interception by lofting a 50-yard touchdown strike to Carl Mulleneaux, cutting the Giants margin to 9-7.

The Giants shortly converted a mid-field fumble by Packer fullback Eddie Jankowski into a 16-7 lead before Green Bay again trimmed the deficit to two points before the half was over; Clarke

Hinkle crashing over from the 6-inch line following a 66-yard Cecil Isbell pass to Wayland Becker. The Packers then forged in front in opening minutes of the second half for the first and only time in the game; an Engebretsen field goal presenting them with a 17-16 edge. The Giants, however, stormed back with a 61-yard scoring drive, capped by a 35-yard pass from Ed Danowski to Hank Soar. Soar fought his way over the goal line from the 2, with Hinkle clinging to one leg, for what proved to be the winning touchdown. A crowd of 48,120, a play off record, sat in on proceedings.

1939 — GREEN BAY 27, NEW YORK 0, (State Fair Park, Milwaukee) — The Packers made playoff history by scoring first shutout ever registered in NFL championship game. Despite bitter 35 m.p.h. wind, both Arnie Herber and Cecil Isbell passed for touchdowns in leading Green Bay to its fifth world championship before 32,279 fans.

Green Bay mounted a 7-0 halftime lead, by dint of a Herber scoring strike to Milt Gantenbein, and pulled away in the third quarter on a 29-yard field goal by Paul (Tiny) Engebretsen and a long TD pass from Isbell to Joe Laws. The Packers added 10 more points in the fourth quarter on a 42-yard field goal by Ernie Smith and a short scoring run by fullback Eddie Jankowski.

1944 — GREEN BAY 14, NEW YORK 7, (Polo Grounds, New York) — With peerless pass catcher Don Hutson employed primarily as a decoy for the Giant defense, fullback Ted Fritsch emerged the offensive hero of Packers' sixth world title victory.

Fritsch scored both Green Bay touchdowns, one on a 2-yard run in the second quarter and the other on a 26-yard pass-and-run collaboration with Irv Comp in the third. Ward Cuff scored the Giants' touchdown with a one-yard plunge on the first play of the final period. Joe Laws, the Packers' veteran, 34-year-old all-purpose halfback, had a brilliant day, setting a playoff record with three interceptions and claiming ground gaining honors with 74 yards in 13 carries. Attendance: 46,016.

1960 — PHILADELPHIA 17, GREEN BAY 13 (Franklin Field) — Packers erected a 6-0 lead in the second period and were out in front by 13-10 in fourth quarter before yielding to late surge by Eagles, who scored the deciding points on a 5-yard burst by Ted Dean.

Green Bay moved ahead in first quarter on a 20-yard Paul Hornung field goal. Hornung added 23-yard FG in second quarter but Eagles tied it 6-6 on a 35-yard scoring pass from Norm Van Brocklin to Tommy McDonald and edged ahead via Bobby Walston's first conversion. Walston followed with a 15-yard FG for a 10-6 halftime lead.

The Packers stopped Philadelphia at their own four late in the third period, then recaptured lead on a 7-yard TD pass from Bart Starr to Max McGee. A 58-yard kickoff return by Dean, however, ignited Eagles and victory eluded Packers, making their first title game appearance in 16 years. Attendance: 67,325.

1961 — GREEN BAY 37, NEW YORK 0, (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — Paul Hornung, on leave from the Army, scored a record tying 19 points to key Packer decimation of Giants in first title game ever played in Green Bay.

A record Packer home crowd of 39,029 watched the Green and Gold erupt for 24 points in the second quarter. In all, the Packers scored seven times against the NFL's top defensive team of 1961, amassing four touchdowns and three field goals. The defense, meanwhile, was proving a devastating complement to the attack, intercepting four Giant passes and recovering one fumble.

Two interceptions, by Ray Nitschke and defensive back Hank Gremminger, set up touchdowns No. 2 and 3 while the fumble recovery by Forrest Gregg led to Hornung's second field goal and a Jess Whittenton interception to Hornung's final FG.

1962 — GREEN BAY 16, NEW YORK 7, (Yankee Stadium, New York) — Out front all the way in a raw, cyclonic setting, Packers weather siege by vengeful Giants in primitive, hand-to-hand struggle. Ray Nitschke proves principal frustration to New Yorkers, seeking redemption for shutdown humiliation in '61 title game. His deflection triggers interception to blunt early Giant drive to Green Bay 10. On way to being named game's most valuable player, he also registers two interceptions, one of which led to the Packers' only touchdown of the afternoon. The other set up a 29-yard field goal by Jerry Kramer, whose trio of three-pointers provided eventual margin.

Giants' only TD comes on block of Max McGee punt in Green Bay end zone midway through the third quarter.

A battered Jim Taylor sets playoff record with 31 rushing attempts, good for 85 yards.

1965 — GREEN BAY 23, CLEVELAND 12, (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — Field softened by four-inch snow made Packer backs only run harder as Lambeau Field crowd of 50,777 celebrated third championship in five years. Jim Taylor and Paul Hornung amassed 201 yards rushing in rally that overcame Browns's early 9-7 lead.

Packers charged to 7-0 first quarter advantage on 47-yard Bart Starr pass to Carroll Dale and Don Chandler's conversion, but Cleveland moved in front on a 17-yard TD strike from Frank Ryan to Gary Collins and 24-yard Lou Groza field goal.

Green Bay rebounded, however, with 15 and 23 yard FGs by Chandler, the latter following a Willie Wood interception, to claim 13-7 lead subsequently trimmed to a single point by a second Groza FG shortly before the intermission.

Starr settled the issue in third quarter, escorting the Packers on a 90-yard, 11-play scoring drive climaxed by Hornung's 13-yard sweep of Browns' right perimeter.

1966 — GREEN BAY 34, DALLAS 27, (Cotton Bowl, Dallas) — Bart Starr has one of his finest hours, passing for four touchdowns as Packers win second straight title and fourth in six years. Tom Brown thwarts last-minute Cowboy bid, and the majority of 74,152 Cotton Bowl fans, with end zone interception of Don Meredith's fourth down pass from Green Bay 2.

Packers mounted quick 14-0 lead on a 17-yard Starr pass to Elijah Pitts and 18-yard scoring run with a fumble recovery by rookie Jim Grabowski, but led only 21-17 at halftime following explosive Cowboy comeback. After a 32-yard Villanueva field goal had cut Packer lead to a tenuous 21-20, Starr hit Dowler and McGee with 16-yard scoring passes to provide a cushion against the Cowboys' late surge.

PACKER NFC PLAYOFF HISTORY

1967 — GREEN BAY 21, DALLAS 17, (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — With thermometer shuddering at 16 below zero and 50,861 in stands, Bart Starr scores winning touchdown from one-yard-line with 13 seconds remaining, sealing record third straight championship for Packers and their fifth in seven years.

Starr's touchdown, on third down with no timeouts remaining, climaxed a 68-yard drive in 12 plays.

As was case in 1966, Packers grabbed early 14-0 advantage. But this time Cowboys came from behind to take the lead, forcing story book finish by Green Bay to win contest later voted the greatest game in pro football history.

Starr's touchdown passes of 8 and 46 yards to Boyd Dowler built the first quarter bulge, trimmed in second quarter by George Andrie's 7-yard scoring return of a Starr fumble and 21-yard Danny Villanueva field goal. Dan Reeves' 50-yard scoring strike to Lance Rentzel in the fourth quarter triggered the dramatic denouement.

1972 DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

WASHINGTON 16, GREEN BAY 3 (Robert F. Kennedy Stadium, Washington, D.C.) — Chester Marcol's 17-yard field goal early in the second quarter puts the Packers out front but a Bill Kilmer-to-Roy Jefferson touchdown pass late in the same period gave the Redskins a lead they never yielded. Curt Knight kicked three field goals to provide the Redskins' other points before a crowd of 52,321 fans on Sunday afternoon, December 24. John Brockington, the Packers' 1,000-yard rusher, had to settle for nine yards on 13 carries as the Redskins used a five-man defensive line to shut down Green Bay's running game.

1983 SUPER BOWL TOURNAMENT

1983—GREEN BAY 41, ST. LOUIS 16 (Lambeau Field, Green Bay) — Making their first post-season appearance in Lambeau Field since celebrated "Ice Bowl" game of 1967 against Dallas, Packers halt Cardinal drive at one-yard-line in first quarter then proceed to forge an all-time club scoring record in their opening Super Bowl Tournament contest following 1982 season.

Out front 21-3 at halftime, they pad lead to 41-9 in fourth quarter before permitting Cards a consolation touchdown. Quarterback Lynn Dickey ties Packer playoff record before 54,282 fans by passing for 4 touchdowns (17 of 23 for 260 yards and 0 intercepts overall) and flanker John Jefferson sets club postseason mark with 148 receiving yards on 6 catches, including a 60-yard TD reception, another Packer playoff record. Placekicker Jan Stenerud also establishes a club playoff mark with a 46-yard field goal.

1983—DALLAS 37, GREEN BAY 26 (Texas Stadium, Irving, TX) — Packers amass 466 yards, a team playoff record, but are unable to overcome slow start, which finds them trailing 20-7 at halftime. They roll up 363 yards and out-score Cowboys 19-17 in second half, pulling within four points (30-26) on a 23-yard scoring runback of an interception by Mark Lee in fourth quarter, but Cowboys retaliate with 74-yard scoring drive to end Green Bay hopes with 63,972 fans looking on.

Quarterback Lynn Dickey throws for 332 yards (19-for-36) and all-time Packer playoff record in losing cause, split end James Lofton emerging with 109 yards on 5 receptions. Lofton also splices Packers' second half comeback with 71-yard reverse for a TD, tying all-time NFL playoff record for a run from scrimmage.

The 1988 Packers set a club record for most passes in a season, attempting 582 to surpass the old mark of 565, set in 1986. They also established a team mark for most completions in a season, 319. The old record, 311, was set in 1983.

PACKERS NO. 1 IN POSTSEASON

The Green Bay Packers have had more success in postseason play than any other team in National Football League history. They have won 13 of 18 playoff games since making their first postseason appearance in the 1936 league championship game (in which they defeated the Boston Redskins 21-6) for a .722 percentage. The Pittsburgh Steelers are next up with a .652 percentage, based on a 15-8 playoff record. The all-time standings:

Ted Hendricks played only one season for Green Bay but he made his presence felt, setting a club record for kick blocks which still stands — and leading the Packer defense in interceptions. He blocked three field goals, three punts and one extra point on special teams and, as a linebacker, collected five interceptions — three in one game against John Hadl and the Los Angeles Rams..

G PACKER PRO HALL OF FAMERS

1963 — E. L. (Curly) Lambeau, Founder, player, coach, vice-president (1919-49). Founded Packers in 1919 and served as team's only coach through 1949 season. Also played halfback from '19 through '27, a period during which he pioneered forward pass in professional football. Led Packers to six world championships and is one of only five coaches to record more than 200 coaching victories in the NFL, (others are George Halas, Paul Brown, Don Shula and Tom Landry). Also coached Chicago Cardinals (1950-'51) and Washington Redskins (1952-'53).

1963 — Johnny (Blood) McNally, HB (1928-'36). Also played for Milwaukee Badgers, Duluth Eskimos, Pottsville Maroons, Pittsburgh Steelers. An elusive runner and gifted pass receiver, he played major role in Packers' drive to first three championships in 1929, '30 and '31. Also helped Packers win a fourth world title in '36. Still 16th place in Packer lifetime scoring, four decades after departing Green Bay scene, with 224 points. Collegiate star at St. Thomas.

1963 — Don Hutson, E (1935-'45). Highest scoring receiver in pro football history with 99 touchdowns, all-time NFL record. Credited with inventing pass patterns, he led league in receiving 8 years and in scoring 5 seasons, both also lifetime marks. Caught passes in 95 consecutive games, one of the longest streaks in pro football history. Led NFL in receiving yards in 7 seasons, an all-time record. Also holds league record for most points scored in one quarter (29).

1963 — Robert (Cal) Hubbard, T-E (1929-'35). Also played for New York Giants, Pittsburgh Steelers. A legendary athlete, he was one of pro football's first genuine giants — a massive 6 ft. 3 inch, 265 pounder who was a devastating blocker on offense and relentless pursuer on defense as a premier, two-way performer. Was an all-pro choice in each of first three years (1931, '32, '33) such selections were made. Played college football at Centenary, Geneva.

Fourth-ranking rusher in Packer history with 3,860 yards in 1,171 carries. Played college football at Bucknell.

1964 — Mike Michalske, G (1929-'37). Also played for New York Yankees (1927-'28) before joining Packers. Rated one of game's greatest guards during pro football's "two-way" era. Two-time all-pro selection (1931 and 1935). A true 60-minute player, he was known as "Iron Mike" because of his great stamina and durability. Best asset was exceptional quickness, which made him equally effective on both offense and defense. Played college football at Penn State.

G PACKER PRO HALL OF FAMERS

1966 — Arnie Herber, HB (1930-'41). Also played for New York Giants (1944-'45). Pro football's first great long passer. THE PACKER STORY

BIRTH OF A TEAM AND A LEGEND

On the evening of August 11, 1919, a score or more of husky young characters, called together by Curly Lambeau and George Calhoun, gathered in the dingy editorial room of the old Green Bay Press-Gazette building on Cherry Street and organized a football team. They didn't know it, but that was the beginning of the incredible saga of the Green Bay Packers.

There had been some preliminary talk and planning and that night's decision wasn't announced until two days later, but the big step had been taken. So August 11 is as good a birthday as any.

Actually the initial spark had been struck a few weeks before during a casual street corner conversation between Curly Lambeau and George Calhoun. It was apparently one of those "Why not get up a football team?" remarks, but once they got interested they wasted no time.

FIRST THEY TALKED Curly's employer at the Indian Packing Company into putting up some money for equipment.

Because the team's jerseys had been provided by the packing company, which also permitted the use of its athletic field for practice, the club was identified in its early publicity as a project of the company. With this tie-in the name "Packers" was a natural, and Packers they have been ever since, although the corporation had practically faded out of the picture before that first season was half over.

That first season the team won 10 games and lost only one against other teams from Wisconsin and Upper Michigan. Games were played in an open field with no fences or bleachers, and interested fans "passed the hat." But the team was so successful by 1921 that Lambeau was backed by two officials of the packing plant in obtaining a franchise in the new national pro-football league that had been formed in 1920. Cash customers didn't quite pay the freight and at the end of the season it had to be forfeited.

THIS WAS the first in a long series of troubles that the now famous team overcame, for in 1922 Lambeau gained other backers and bought the franchise back for $250. Troubles continued during that season. One game was rained out and the insurance company wouldn't pay off because the official amount of rain was one one-hundredth of an inch short of that required in the policy.

Another storm late in the season when the Packers were scheduled to play the Duluth Eskimos, however, proved the founding of the modern community corporation. A.B. Turnbull, general manager of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, told the Packers to play anyway. He then went out and helped organize the businessmen of Green Bay in the support of the team, and the Green Bay Football Corporation was formed.

FROM THOSE MODEST and somewhat tenuous beginnings, the Packers have gone on to earn national stature and virtual world-wide recognition by winning more championships (eleven) over the intervening half-century than any other team in professional football.

The fact that these achievements have come while representing a city of only 90,000 inhabitants, in competition with the country's population giants, has endeared them to the nation's football fans, many of whom are intrigued by the David vs. Goliath concept and the Packers' unique status as a publicly-owned corporation.

INEVITABLY, PROCEDURES at Packer games have come a long way since the sandlot years of 1919-20 when the Pack was subsisting on the contents of George Calhoun's hat. Then there were no ushers, no majorettes, no band and no public address system—the latter hadn't been invented yet, there weren't even any seats at first, and it didn't cost anything to get in.

When the Packers began their existence in 1919, they played on approximately the same site as the now abandoned City (East) Stadium, but with a mighty difference. Hagemeyer Park, as it was called was just a big vacant lot with a football gridiron marked on it.

There were no gates because there wasn't any fence. Spectators just dropped off the Walnut Street streetcar and walked over to the sideline, or drove their own cars and parked about ten yards behind the ropes stretched around the playing field.

If they felt like it they either sat in their automobiles or on top of them, but most preferred to get out and follow the play up and down the field. By moving as the play progressed, you always had a "50-yard line" location and were handy to any donnybrook that might require a little help. In fact, when things got exciting the crowd sometimes spilled right onto the field, surrounded the scrimmage in a big circle and virtually took part in every play. Teams didn't huddle in those days, or the fans would have been in that too.

When the half ended teams grabbed blankets and adjourned to opposite end zones where they relaxed and talked over the tactics of the next half. Nothing private about those huddles. The crowd formed a ring around the players, a practice encouraged since it made a handy wind break. Fans weren't bashful about joining the discussions either, sometimes with surprising results. At least one early game was pulled out of the fire by a spectator's half time suggestion.

In 1920 a section of stands was built—just a small bleacher with a capacity of a couple hundred—on one side of the field, and a fee charged to sit there. The next year a portable canvas fence was erected around the whole field and a regular admission charge inaugurated.

WHEN HAGEMEISTER Park was dug up in 1923

THE PACKER STORY

to make way for East High School, the Packers shifted to the new baseball grounds out on the end of Main Street. This was called Bellevue Park because it was just east of the old Hagemeyer Brewery, which was renamed the Bellevue Products Co. during Prohibition. Things were Big Time out there, with crowds of 4,000 to 5,000 storming the fences to boo the hated Chicago Bears.

The Packers used Bellevue in 1923-24, but it was obviously inadequate and too far out, lacking about every facility needed for football. Agitation to build a new stadium somewhere near the original site culminated in the erection of old City Stadium just back of the new high school.

The new plant was barely completed in time for the 1925 opening, but was an immediate success, the Bear game that year drawing a record crowd of nearly 6,000. It was a typical small town park of its day, with wooden fences and stands on both sides, between the 30-yard lines. Seating capacity was gradually increased until it seated 15,000 by 1934, with the end zones still uncovered. With the filling in of the area around the end lines the ultimate capacity of 25,000 was reached.

AFTER WORLD WAR II, City Stadium gradually faded from its once proud position as one of the favored fields in the National Football League to an inadequate and obsolete installation. As pro crowds increased it was impossible to expand the stadium any further. With limited capacity, the Packers found it increasingly difficult to schedule top opponents at home. September 29, 1957 was a proud day for Green Bay and its Packers. A million dollar modern stadium with a seating capacity of 32,150 was dedicated. In 1961, the Stadium was expanded to 38,669, to 42,327 in 1963, to 50,861 in 1965 when the name was changed to Lambeau Field, 56,155 in 1970, and to 56,926 following the addition of private boxes in 1985.

The Packers' colorful saga, spanning 70 years, can be roughly divided into eight chapters. They take us from the "Iron Man" period of the first decade under founder Curly Lambeau to the present day, which finds Lindy Infante presiding as the tenth head coach in the team's history.

THE IRON MAN ERA—With good financial backing, Lambeau began to pick up college stars from all over the country, plus some unknowns who were going to turn out to be "greats." And in 1929 Green Bay won the national professional football championship. They repeated in 1930 and 1931 with a team featuring such all-time pro greats as Red Dunn, Verne Lewellen, Cal Hubbard, Bo Molenda, Jug Earp, Mike Michalske, Johnny Blood, Bill Kern, Arnie Herber, Clarke Hinkle, Lavvie Dilweg, Tom Nash, Milt Ganthenbein and Hank Bruder. Many games 12 or 13 players would go for almost the full 60 minutes. These teams were hailed all over the country as some of the greatest ever.

THE HUTSON PERIOD—Trouble flared again soon afterward. A fan fell from the stands, sued and won a $5,000 verdict and the insurance company went out of business. The Packers went into receivership, were just about to fold, when Green Bay businessmen came to the rescue again, raised $15,000 in new capital and reorganized the club. About this time a rather slight, lanky end by the name of Don Hutson came to the club. From his first game on, Hutson became the terror of the league and the secret of Green Bay's next three championships. With Herber and Cecil Isbell pitching and Hutson catching anything they threw at him despite any kind of a stop-Hutson defense, Green Bay won championships in 1936, 1939 and 1944, and all during the Hutson era they always finished in the first division.

RONZANI REGIME—After Hutson's retirement, Packer fortunes again went into a decline. The disastrous pro football war brought on another financial crisis after the 1949 season. In the midst of it Lambeau resigned to take a position as head coach of the Chicago Cardinals. Then began another major reorganization and rebuilding effort with Gene Ronzani of the Bears hired as head coach. Over $125,000 was raised in a giant stock sale all over the state. Ronzani's teams improved each of the first three seasons until 1952. The Packers were in the thick of the title chase until the last weeks of the season. In 1953 the team played erratic ball and Ronzani resigned with two games remaining on the schedule.

BLACKBOURN TAKES OVER—The Packers overhauled their front office and coaching staff in 1954, hiring Verne C. Lewellen, all-time Packer great, attorney and businessman, as general manager. Reaching into college ranks for a head coach was the next step in the rebuilding plans and Lisle W. Blackbourn, coach of Marquette University, was signed to a contract. During the four-year Blackbourn regime the Packers won 17 while losing 31.

MCLEAN MOVES UP—Likable Ray "Scooter" McLean moved up from an outstanding assistant coach to guide the destiny of the Packers for 1958. McLean resigned in December after a 1-10-1 record, worst in Packer history in his lone season as head coach.

THE LOMBARDI ERA—In 1959, the Packers announced the signing of New York Giant assistant Vince Lombardi as head coach and general manager.

In his first season, Lombardi lifted the Packers to a 7-5 record and was unanimously voted Coach of the Year. Then in 1960, the Packers captured the Western Division title and went on to win World Championships in 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966, and 1967. Never finishing lower than second since 1960, his teams became the standard of football excellence and the Packer franchise one of the most successful. Over a nine year span as head coach, Lombardi's teams racked up 141 victories against 39 losses and 4 ties for a remarkable .783 winning percentage. Even more noteworthy, however, is the record of Lombardi coached teams in post-season play. In 10 Division playoffs and World Championship Games, the Packers emerged victorious nine times.

BENGSTON PERIOD—Following the third consecutive title in 1967, Lombardi turned over the head coaching duties to Phil Bengtson and one year later announced that he was leaving Green Bay to coach and manage the Washington Redskins. Bengtson coached the Packers from 1968-1970, compiling a 20-21-1 record, and in December of 1970 resigned.

THE DEVINE DAYS—Dan Devine, one of the three most successful coaches in the nation's collegiate ranks, succeeded Bengtson as head coach and general manager in January of 1971. After settling for a 4-8-2 record during his first season, Devine and the Packers appeared on the road to new heights when 1972 produced a 10-4 record and the team's first Central Division title since 1967. But the Packers' Super Bowl hopes dissolved in the second half of '73 and they slipped to a 5-7-2 mark. They continued their recession in '74, emerging with a 6-8 record, and Devine resigned.

BART STARR—the most successful field general in pro football history as Green Bay's quarterback of the '60s, accepted the challenge to lead the Packers out of the NFL wilderness, agreeing to a three-year contract as head coach and general manager on Dec. 24, 1974. Starr, who led the Packers to five world championships from 1961 through 1967, asked for "the prayers and patience of Packer fans everywhere... We will earn everything else."

Although he had to settle for a 4-10 record in the baptismal season of a massive rebuilding project, Starr gave Packer fans new hope by assembling a sound organization and restoring a positive attitude, underscored by three victories in the last five games of the 1975 season. He continued the resurgent trend in 1976, leading the Packers to a 5-9 record, highlighted by a three-game, mid-season winning streak. Major and key injuries slowed the comeback in 1977 but a strong finish produced a 4-10 mark. Hopes soared in 1978 when the Packers posted their first winning record since 1972, an 8-7-1 record, only to be temporarily damped in '79 by a record rash of injuries which spawned a 5-11 mark. Another injury epidemic, one which saw 27 players on injured reserve during the course of the season, struck in 1980, forcing the Packers to settle for a 5-10-1 record.

Rebounding strongly in 1981, they rallied from a disappointing 2-6 start to mount one of the most dramatic comebacks in Green Bay history, closing with a 6-2 rush (an 8-8 mark) and coming within one victory of the playoffs.

The Packers continued the upsurge in 1982, when they qualified for the playoffs for the first time since 1972 by posting a 5-3-1 record during a strike-interrupted season. They then embellished that performance by routing St. Louis 41-16 in the first game of the NFL's Super Bowl Tournament before bowing to Dallas (37-26) despite a record-setting, 466-yard offensive effort. Starr was relieved of his head coaching duties on Dec. 19, 1983, after the Packers finished the '83 season with an 8-8 record and missed the NFL playoffs on the final week of the year.

GREGG ERA—On December 24, 1984, Starr was replaced by Forrest Gregg, a former teammate and one of the premier offensive tackles in the history of the game as a player, who had maneuvered Cincinnati into Super Bowl XVI following the 1981 season. Gregg, whose Bengals' 19-6 record over the 1981-82 seasons was the best in pro football, received a five-year contract.

In taking over, he declared, "I took this job to field a winning team... That will happen."

Gregg's prediction began to bear of fruit in the second half of the 1984 season when the Packers rebounded from an injury-ridden 1-7 start to win seven of their last eight games.

Because of injury and other complications, however, the 1985 season followed the '84 script, the Packers getting off to a slow 3-6 start before mounting a strong finish to again close at 8-8 by winning 5 of their last 7 games.

Gregg, convinced the time had come to rebuild a team which had gone 8-and-8 three years in succession and was "starting to get old" at that level, made sweeping personnel changes in 1986. The young and inexperienced Packers, their task complicated by injuries to such key performers as John Anderson, Tim Lewis, Rich Moran and Mark Cannon, got off to an 0-6 start, then began to mature in mid-season and went on to finish with a 4-and-12 record.

Following the 1987 season, which saw the Packers finish third in the NFC Central with a 5-9-1 record, Gregg resigned (Jan. 15, 1988) to become head coach at his alma mater, Southern Methodist University.

THE PRESENT—Nineteen days later, (Feb. 3), Cleveland Browns offensive coordinator Lindy Infante became the tenth head coach in Packer history. Recognized throughout the NFL as a brilliant innovator, the 47-year-old University of Florida alumnus received a five-year contract.

With turnovers and kicking problems plaguing his offense, Infante's first Packer team had to settle for a 4-and-12 record but left fans with hopes for 1989 and the future by winning the last two games to mount a strong finish.

PACKERS OWN OVERTIME MARK

The Packers, who have demonstrated a flair for the dramatic over the 70-year course of their history, continue to own the National Football League record for most overtime games played in a season. They set the mark in 1983 when they were involved in five sudden death decisions, winning two and losing three.

In 1987, the Packers augmented their reputation for going the "extra mile" playing in three more overtime contests, a parlay which swelled their lifetime total of sudden death games to 15.

The Packers' three OT adventures of '87 came within a four-game span. The first occurred in Game Two against Denver at Milwaukee September 20, a confrontation which ended in a 17-17 sudden death tie when neither team was able to score in the extra period. The other two sudden death affairs came on consecutive weekends in replacement games, the Packers bowing to Detroit in Green Bay's Lambeau Field on Sunday, October 11 (19-16), a contest decided by Lion Mike Prindle's 31-yard field goal, then defeating the Philadelphia Eagles in "Lambeau" the following Sunday, October 18 (16-10) via James Hargrove's, climactic, 7-yard touchdown run up the middle.

Overall, the Packers have won five, lost six and tied four of those 15 overtime struggles.

In addition to regular and post-season play, the Packers have played one overtime game in pre-season action—against New England at Milwaukee August 30, 1975. The Patriots won that one, 20-17, on a John Smith field goal.

Steve Odom (1974-79) holds the Packer distance record for a punt return. He set the mark with a 95-yard runback against the Bears at Milwaukee November 10, 1974, eclipsing the previous record of 93 yards, set by Verlyl Switzer (1954-55). Mark Lee later also surpassed Switzer's effort, engineering a 94-yard scoring runback against the New York Giants November 8, 1981, also at County Stadium.

JIM IRWIN

MAX MC GEE

Jim Irwin, one of the nation's most knowledgeable and authoritative play-by-play announcers, and Max McGee, who has become a popular and respected analyst in a second career after establishing himself as one of the Packers' all-time greats as a player, again will team up to bring the color and excitement of Packer games to fans throughout Wisconsin and the midwest in 1989 via the Packer Radio Network.

Irwin, whose cultured tones also are familiar to Milwaukee Brewer and Bucks fans, is in his 18th year as the voice of the Packers. His credibility as a sports journalist has been repeatedly recognized by his peers, who have voted him Wisconsin's Sportscaster of the Year nine times.

McGee, who still ranks fourth lifetime among Packer receivers two decades after completing his 13-year playing career, brings a special knowledge of the game — and of the Packers specifically — to the broadcast booth. Listeners also respond to his droll, penetrating and sometimes irreverent wit, applied impartially to friend and foe alike.

INSTANT REPLAY APPROVED FOR 1989

For the fourth consecutive season, NFL clubs have approved a limited system of Instant Replay on a one-year basis.

The system stays the same as in 1988. The Replay Official will be assigned a regular officiating crew and will attend crew meetings the day before each game.

The following table outlines the number of reversals and plays closely reviewed by Instant Replay in each of the previous three seasons.

Games	Plays Closely
	Reversals	Reviewed
1986	224	38	374
1987	210	57	490
1988	224	53	537

In 1986, the system was approved by a 23-4-1 vote. In 1987, the vote was 21-7. In 1988, replay was cleared by a 23-5 margin. In 1989, the vote was 24-4.

The NFL has discussed Instant Replay in some degree or other since the early 1970s. The League experimented in 1976 and 1978 using two basic frameworks — an independent system using cameras, replay machines, and technicians separate from the network covering the games, and a "no-frills" approach using existing TV coverage.

In 1985, the NFL used the network feed of the nine nationally-televised preseason games to experiment with the basic system which later was adopted for 1986, 1987, and 1988. A total of 28 plays (17 confirmed call, 4 inconclusive, 1 reversed, and 6 no replay shown) were closely examined in the 1985 experiment.

Q—What is the objective of this system?

A—The clubs feel that on certain plays the telecast viewed by the general public should be used to correct an indisputable error. The system will be used to reverse an on-field decision only when the Replay Official has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

Q—Who will be involved?

A—The Replay Official (a former NFL or collegiate official) will be positioned in a sideline Replay Booth, which will house two TV monitors and two high-speed VCRs plus radio communications to the on-field officials. The Replay Official makes the decision although a Communicator (normally a member of the League Office staff) and a Technician also will be there to lend logistical help.

Q—Why is the system referred to as "limited" Instant Replay?

A—This system will concentrate on plays of possession or touching (e.g. fumbles, receptions, interceptions, muffs) and most plays governed by the sidelines, goal lines, end lines, and line of scrimmage (e.g. receiver or runner in or out of bounds, forward or backward passes, breaking the plane of the goal line). It also will be used to determine whether there are more than 11 men on the field.

Q—Why aren't most fouls included in this system?

A—It is recognized that in most circumstances the on-field officials have the best vantage points involving fouls. It is for this reason that Instant Replay will not review a list of the following 26 fouls:

1. Clipping
2. Encroachment or offsides
3. Grasp of facemask
4. False start
5. Defensive pass interference
6. Offensive pass interference
7. Offensive holding and illegal use of hands
8. Illegal batting or punching ball
9. Illegal block on free kick or scrimmage kick
10. Illegal crackback
11. Illegal motion
12. Illegal use of forearm or elbow
13. Illegal use of hands by defense
14. Illegally kicking ball
15. Illegally snapping ball
16. Intentional grounding
17. Member of punting team downfield early
18. Illegal formation
19. Palpably unfair act
20. Piling on
21. Roughing the passer
22. Running into/roughing kicker
23. Striking, kicking, or kneeing
24. Unnecessary roughness
25. Unsportsmanlike conduct
26. Use of helmet as a weapon

Q—Is the television network carrying the game part of the review process?

A—No. Although the Replay Official will be viewing the live network feed, there is no communication to television personnel as to which plays to show or not to show.

Q—What is the step-by-step procedure of a play review?

A—The Replay Official will view game action and a play will be replayed immediately on one of the two monitors, while the other one continues to record the live feed.

The Replay Official makes a determination if further study of the play is needed. If not, there is no contact with the field and play continues without interruption.

If the Replay Official believes an error may have been made the Umpire will be contacted via a headset.

The Replay Official will watch replay(s) on one or both monitors and complete his review within a reasonable period after the play is over.

The Replay Official will inform the Umpire of his decision, and the Referee will make the appropriate announcement on the wireless microphone.

Instant Replay will return for the 1989 NFL season.

At the NFL annual meeting in March at Palm Desert, California, club owners, for the fourth consecutive year, voted to utilize a limited Instant Replay system as an officiating aid. The vote was 24-4.

Replay was first adopted in 1986. It is used if there is indisputable visual evidence on videotape of an obvious error by a field official on plays limited to possession and goal line and out-of-bounds decisions.

The Replay system in 1989 remains the same as the 1988 version when the Instant Replay official was assigned to work with the same seven-man, on-the-field crew throughout the regular season.

In other action, a joint proposal by the Long-Range Planning and Finance committees regarding player personnel also was adopted. The committees' recommendation for the first time sets offseason roster limits and the creation of a developmental squad. It also addressed roster cutdown dates and injured reserve. The teams agreed:

Until May 31: No more than 90 players under contract.

—June 1: No more than 80 players under contract.

—Roster cutdown to 60 players after third preseason game (August 29).

—Roster cutdown to 47 players Monday (September 4) prior to regular-season opener.

—Regular-season game roster of 45 players plus two inactive.

—Developmental squad of six players maximum per club established after final cut to 47 and comprised of only rookies/first-year players who have passed through waivers.

—Players placed on injured reserve during the preseason may not return to same club that year; also may not practice.

—Players placed on injured reserve after the final cut may return after six games by free reactivation (each club has five) or procedural-recall waivers.

—Two practice options: Option 1: After four weeks on injured reserve, player can practice for two weeks, then club must waive or activate; Option 2: After six weeks on injured reserve, player can be activated, waived, or begin unlimited practice. If practicing, player must count against developmental squad total of six.

Also, the clubs approved the following:

—Further clarified the roughing-the-passer rule by prohibiting a defender who has an unrestricted path to the quarterback from flagrantly hitting him in the area of the knees when approaching from any direction.

—Specified that fouls which occur in the last five minutes of the fourth quarter as well as the last two minutes of the first half will result in the clock starting on the snap.

—Called for strong disciplinary measures against feigned injuries.

—Any entering substitute who participates in a play must enter while the ball is dead and must move onto the field as far as the inside field numerals; in addition, the player or players replaced must have cleared the field on their own side (between end lines) prior to the snap or free kick.

—Established a new set of procedures, including loss of team timeouts or a five-yard penalty on the defense, to handle the problem of crowd noise which prevents the offense from hearing its signals.

—Further liberalized blocking rule to permit a blocker to initially contact on or outside the opponent's frame of the body so long as the blocker works to bring his hands back on or inside the frame after initial contact.

—Changed the simultaneous catch rule so that the offensive or defensive player who first controls and continues to maintain control of a pass will be awarded the ball even though his opponent later establishes joint control of the ball.

—Prohibited the offense, while in the process of substitution or simulated substitution, from rushing quickly to the line and snapping the ball with the obvious attempt to cause a defensive foul. In such an instance, the referee shall hold the snap, giving the defense a reasonable time to complete its substitution or if a defensive foul results, the flag will be picked up and the down replayed.
